April 29, 2018 Fifth Sunday of Easter

In a way, Easter Time for the Church is like springtime for the world, and for those of us who live in the northern hemisphere, it is wonderful that they coincide. The world around us celebrates new life: trees and plants are budding, animals have come out of hibernation, the sun is out longer. As Christians, we also celebrate new life: Jesus is risen, the readings recount the infancy of the early church, we have new life in the Lord by our baptism. Let us celebrate this new life as we continue celebrating this holy season.

We Are One In Christ
Stewardship as a Way of Life

Stewardship: An Attitude of Gratitude

Stewardship is recognizing that everything we have is a gift from God, being grateful, developing our gifts and generously sharing with others. Gifts are typically categorized as time, talent and treasure. But how do we fit this into practice in our everyday lives?

WE rest in your Prayer Life
Play to God frequently throughout the day, every day.
Talk and listen to God.

LENT
Waginess to help others
Participate in parish ministries and other charitable organizations.
Accept responsibility for helping others.

EASURE
generosity with your financial gifts
Generously return a portion of the money you have been given by God.
Give cheerfully without expecting anything in return. No gift is too small or insignificant.

Stewardship isn't some exclusion club. We are all stewards. Living stewardship requires change – a change that opens our hearts and makes room for the Holy Spirit to enter.

For a stewardship lifestyle you need to do these things:
a time – time to pray
or God first in all things.
a risk – detach yourself from your time, possession and money and place your trust in God.

Let us walk this path together!

En cierto modo, el Tiempo de Pascua para la Iglesia es como la primavera para el mundo, y para aquellos de nosotros que vivimos en el hemisferio norte, es maravilloso que coincidan. El mundo que nos rodea celebra una nueva vida: los árboles y las plantas están en ciernes, los animales han salido de la hibernación, el sol ya no existe. Como cristianos, también celebramos una vida nueva: Jesús ha resucitado, las lecturas relatan la infancia de la iglesia primitiva, tenemos una nueva vida en el Señor con nuestro bautismo. Celebremos esta nueva vida mientras continuamos celebrando esta sagrada temporada.

Dear parishioners,

Our world is a busy place. We are routinely bombarded with television, radio and online messages that demand our time and attention. We need to pause. Pope Francis tells us that the Church “urgently needs the deep breath of prayer.” We must take time, every day, to go to God in prayer.

In my time of prayer, I see you. I see you and every other member of our parish family. Why? Because you are all important to me. I believe in our parish, and I believe that God is doing some amazing work here.

Each year at this time we take time to reflect on our life at St. Anthony and how we can participate, using our time, talent and treasure, in the work that God has called us to do. We are transforming lives and are being transformed by His love at the same time. We are one in Christ, and we are making a difference together.

The many volunteers that make all of our parish ministries and activities possible are our lifeblood. We simply could not do what we do without them. We are blessed to have so many who give of their time and talents.

Sharing our treasure is also an important principle of stewardship. Our parish is sustained only by your financial support. All that we do, such as worship, faith formation, and our adult and children’s programs, are made possible by your gifts.

Your prayers and sharing of God’s gifts are greatly appreciated. God bless you for your generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ, Fr. Juan

Queridos feligreses,

Nuestro mundo es un lugar ocupado. Nos bombardean rutinariamente con televisión, radio y mensajes en línea que demandan nuestro tiempo y atención. Necesitamos hacer una pausa. El Papa Francisco nos dice que la Iglesia “necesita urgentemente el aliento profundo de la oración”. Debemos tomarnos el tiempo, todos los días, para ir a Dios en oración.

En mi tiempo de oración, te veo. Te veo a ti y a todos los demás miembros de nuestra familia parroquial. ¿Por qué? Porque tú eres todo importante para mí. Creo en nuestra parroquia, y creo que Dios está haciendo un trabajo increíble aquí.

Cada año en este momento nos tomamos el tiempo para reflexionar sobre nuestra vida en St. Anthony y sobre cómo podemos participar, utilizando nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro, en el trabajo que Dios nos ha llamado a hacer. Estamos transformando vidas y estamos siendo transformados por Su amor al mismo tiempo. Somos uno en Cristo, y estamos haciendo la diferencia juntos.

Los muchos voluntarios que hacen posibles todos nuestros ministerios y actividades parroquiales son nuestra sangre. Simplemente no podríamos hacer lo que hacemos sin ellos. Tenemos la bendición de tener tantos que dan su tiempo y talento.

Compartir nuestro tesoro es también un principio importante de mayordomía. Nuestra parroquia solo se sustenta con su apoyo financiero. Todo lo que hacemos, como la adoración, la formación en la fe y nuestros programas para adultos y niños, son posibles gracias a sus dones.

Sus oraciones y compartir los dones de Dios son muy apreciados. Que Dios te bendiga por tu generosidad.

Atentamente en Cristo, padre, Juan

O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders; in the sight of the nations he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

O canta una nueva canción al Señor, porque él ha obrado maravillas; a la vista de las naciones que ha mostrado su liberación, aleluia.

I am the true vine and you are the branches, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me, and I in him, bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.

Yo soy la vid verdadera y ustedes son las ramas, dice el Señor. Quien permanece en mí y yo en él, da fruto en abundancia, aleluia.
