Senenmut was one of the most important officials in the court of the remarkable female Pharaoh, Hatshepsut, of the 15th Century BC.

He held numerous important titles, and appears to have been something of an ancient Egyptian Michelangelo.

This lecture explores evidence for his life through his (many) monuments, a recent discovery in Manchester Museum, and indications about his afterlife.

The SSAE was formed in 1992 and is aimed at people in the Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire and South Yorkshire areas with an interest in Ancient Egyptian history and art.
