Welcome to our 3rd CFB Preview

As many of you know we've been doing weekly CFB/NFL newsletters for several years. We've always had an interest in doing a CFB preview but the timing hasn't always worked. A couple of years ago, we decided to start the process of putting it all our data/info together in a preview.

While many previews write far more words on each team, if we're talking pure CFB gambling content, no other CFB preview has as many bets, lines, data and betting specific info on the market today!

We thought last year's CFB Preview was a smashing success in terms of the results below...

2022 Season Win Totals: 59-28-13 25.5% ROI
2022 Conference Win Totals: 7-6-1 -7.0% ROI
2022 Week 0/1 Bets: 44-31-2 27.7% ROI
2022 Game of Year Bets: 36-21 17.3% ROI
2022 National Title Futures: 0-4 -100% ROI
2022 Conference Title Futures: 5-19 24.5% ROI
2022 Heisman Futures: 1-15 82.9% ROI
Total: 152-124-16 55.8% with a 22.3% ROI.

We had $144,703 in bets last year (+$32,295.78 in profits). This year we have $193,247 in bets so far!

This year's preview will be sent FREE to anyone who is subscribed to our weekly newsletter this season. Keep in mind, this year's newsletter will just have data info like logs and power ratings and all the opening bets we made at Circa.

With each passing year, we have more influence on markets and if getting the absolute best number is important to you, VIP might be worth your while this season. It is $499. You will receive the picks via email and text. You can sign up today at bradpowerssports.com. If you want to learn more about the differences between our weekly newsletter vs VIP service, refer to page 2 or email brad@bradpowerssports.com

We hope you enjoy this CFB preview and we look forward to a successful 2023 football season.

Sincerely,

Brad Powers and Staff

2023 CFB Playoff Projections

Unless something drastic changes like a starting QB getting hurt or a head coach leaving, we think these are the four most likely playoff teams for 2023 in our current projections.

1. Georgia 5/2 Title Odds BetOnline

The Bulldogs are trying to become the first team in AP Poll history (since 1936) to "3-peat" and they are in great shape to do so. They have the best TE in CFB in Brock Bowers, arguably the best OL and the best defense. They also have the weakest schedule of all the contenders. UGA figures to be a double-digit favorite in at least 11 games this year.

2. Ohio State 8/1 Title Odds Westgate Superbook

For all the "doom and gloom" in Columbus, the Buckeyes were one missed FG away against Georgia from being the defending National Champs. Yes, they need to figure out the QB and OL positions but they still have the best set of RB's and WR's in the country and we expect their defense to be improved. OSU will be favored by at least a TD in 11 of their 12 games. Can they "upset" Michigan in Ann Arbor?

3. Michigan 10/1 Title Odds FanDuel

The two-time defending Big Ten champs could be even better this year. JJ McCarthy returns at QB and so does the outstanding RB duo of Corum/Edwards. The Wolverines have a Top 5 OL and also a Top 5 defense. The question marks are at WR and #2 CB. The schedule will see them favored by double-digits in 10 of their 12 games with the exceptions being at Penn St and home vs Ohio State.

4. Alabama 7/1 Title Odds Westgate Superbook

Yes, there are concerns about this year's team especially at the QB position where they go from the first pick in the Draft to an unknown. That's why the Tide are 4th on our list and not in their typical No. 1 or No. 2 slot. They still should be favored in all 12 of their games as they get key games vs Texas, Tennessee and LSU all at home. However, they no longer have Bryce Young to bail them out in close games like the last couple of seasons.

6 Teams that Could make a Playoff Run

Clemson 20/1 Title Odds South Point

After not making the playoffs the last two seasons, the Tigers are well-positioned to contend again. New OC Riley is an upgrade, QB Klubnik should be improved and the front 7 on defense could be the best in the country. The schedule will also see Clemson favored in all 12 games.

Texas 25/1 Title Odds FanDuel

Texas is back! We really mean it this time. The Horns have a Top 5 offense in the country and the defense made great strides last year. The schedule also sets up nicely as they will be favored in 11 of their 12 games. The exception being a road trip to Alabama. A Crimson Tide team they could have easily beat last year.

USC 16/1 Title Odds Draft Kings

USC almost made a shocking run to the playoffs last year before losing to Utah in the Pac-12 championship game. This year's team is much better especially on defense thanks to an influx of transfers. Oh yeah, that guy Caleb Williams... he also returns to lead the nation's best offense.

LSU 12/1 Title Odds Westgate Superbook

The defending SEC West champs are better in year two under Brian Kelly. QB Jayden Daniels returns and LB Harold Perkins could be the top defender in the country. The Tigers do have to travel to Alabama and also play a Top 10 Florida State team in Week 1.

Florida State 25/1 Title Odds FanDuel

The Seminoles could have their best team in a decade this fall. Fresh off a 10-win season, they are one of the most experienced teams in the country led by QB Travis. They do play Top 5 LSU in Week 1 and also have to travel to Clemson in September.

Penn 28/1 Title Odds BetOnline

Looking for an outside the box pick? The defending Rose Bowl champs could be even better this year if QB Allar lives up to the hype. Can they finally beat Ohio St and Michigan though?

Group of 5 thoughts:

We don't see a Group of 5 team making the playoffs this year. Next year they get the auto bid.

Alabama Ranks No. 1 in 247Sports 2023 Team Composite Recruiting Rankings

BP Sports used to do an average of all the major recruiting service rankings to come up with our own rankings. However, the 247Sports Composite rankings already does that for us. It is a proprietary algorithm that compiles recruiting rankings and ratings listed in the public domain by the major media recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals, 247, etc) creating the industry's most comprehensive and unbiased prospect and team rankings. (Total = # of signees, 5★ = # of star-rated signees).

Colorado Ranks No. 1 in 247Sports 2023 Transfer Portal Rankings

The transfer portal is becoming more and more prominent in CFB with each passing season. This year already more than 1,000 players have transferred to a FBS school with another 1,000 players still left in the portal. Following the portal is just as important, if not more, than recruiting at this point because we are talking about players with CFB experience and can be instant impact players. Below is a list of the 247 transfer portal rankings per school. (Total = # of transfers, 5★ = # of star-rated transfers).

Bill Connelly's Returning Production vs Phil Steele's Experience Chart

Returning starters are just a basic approach to analyzing what a team brings back experience wise. Bill Connelly's returning production formula looks at the most predictive key personnel stats -- the numbers that have the most impact on improvement or regression from season to season. For example, what percentage of your QBs' combined passing yardage is returning? Your offensive line snaps? Your defensive tackles for loss? Meanwhile, Phil Steele's experience chart also takes a more thorough approach including the % of yards and tackles returning along with offensive line career starts. BC column = Bill Connelly's Returning Production Rank. PS column = Phil Steele's Experience Chart Rank. RS column = # of returning starters. Rk column = average of BC and PS.

2023 Position-By-Position "Up/Downs" for all 131 FBS teams!

Since we don't handicap baseball, the summer months give us ample time to go through all 133 FBS teams team with a fine tooth comb for the upcoming college football season.

One of the methods we use in coming up with some initial power ratings for each team are our position-by-position "Up/Downs." Basically, we go through every position of every team and give a value of "-3 to +3" for QBs, RBs, WR/TE, OL, DL, LBs, DBs, Special Teams, Coaches and Intangibles.

A team with a "+3" for a single position means that we have that position power-rated up 3 points from the previous season. A good example for this year would be Boston College's OL position. Last year BC lost four starters and then their only returning lineman Christian Mahogany was injured and lost for the season in the summer. They only had four returning career starts. During the season they also lost a couple of starters to injury and ended up starting 9 different OL combos in the first 9 games. BC would average just 63 rushing ypg (2.1 yards per carry) and gave up 46 sacks. Now this year, they return all 5 starters, they get Mahogany back and add a couple of experienced starters from the transfer portal. They have 137 career starts! Quite simply, it's the most improved position group in the entire country this off-season.

A team with a "-3" for a single position means that we have that position power-rated down three points from the previous season. A good example for this year would be Charlotte's wide receivers. This year they lose their top four receivers as one was drafted, one was their all-time receiving leader and one transferred to Minnesota and will start.

With 10 different categories, the maximum value a team can be up or down from the previous season is 30. That +30 or -30 points rarely, if ever, happens and the only example we can give you in the last 10 years of a team being nearly 4 TD's different (power ratings wise) from the previous season is UCF in 2015. The Knights went 0-12 (-24 ppg) in 2015 following a 9-4 season where they were +9 ppg. We had them power-rated 27 points lower by the end of the season. The next closest was Louisville who went from 8-5 in 2017 (+11 ppg) to 2-10 (-24 ppg) in 2018. We had them power-rated down about 24 points from the beginning of the season.

Below are our "Up/Downs" for every position on every team. For the coach's category (CCH), new coaches can sometimes be downgraded because they are new to that program and don't know the strengths and weaknesses of the players yet. Also they could be installing new schemes on offense and/or defense and the current players might not fit their styles of play.

Finally, the intangibles category covers a broad range of categories including Close Wins/Losses from the previous year, Strength of Schedule (is it weaker or stronger from last year?), Turnovers, Injuries (were they healthy or banged up last year), etc. A team like Akron was graded "+2" in that category because they were -13 in TO's, suffered five close losses and play a much more manageable schedule this year.

As you can see Colorado has the highest "plus" grade coming off a 1-11 season. Yes, the Buffaloes return only 3 starters. However, new head coach Deion Sanders brings in 72 new players (No. 21 overall class including frosh/transfers) and they are more talented in every position group (includes multiple 5★'s). Kent State, who returns only 5 starters is at the bottom of the chart.

2023 Season Win Total Projections (Power Ratings Only)

In order to come up with a season win total projection, we take the projected spread of each game and figure out a win percentage chance for that game. If you have a 90% chance to win a game, you get credit for 0.9 of a win. If you have a 20% chance to win a game, you get credit for 0.2 of a win. When you add up the win percentages for all 12 games, you get an early season win total projection.

Below is an example for Georgia this year. The Bulldogs will be favored in all 12 games this year by an average of 28.7 ppg. Does, that mean Georgia's season win total should be 12? Not when you do the correct math as you get a season win total of 11.25 for the Bulldogs.

Point Spread Value of All 133 Starting Quarterbacks in CFB

One of the questions we get asked often in our media appearances is “how much is a player worth to a Vegas point spread? Obviously, the quarterback position is by far the most valuable position in football and the only position that will move the needle consistently. Very few non-QB’s can move a point spread more than a point in CFB. In all of our years of handicapping and betting, we’ve never come across a person or service that has listed the point value for all 133 CFB QB’s. Below is our preliminary list of what each starting QB is worth to a point spread in CFB. Remember, there are two parts to this: One is the quality of your starter and two is the quality of your backup. Some might be surprised that Ole Miss’ Jaxon Dart is worth only 0.5 points to the spread despite being a Heisman contender. Remember, his backup Spencer Sanders has years of starting experience, would start at a lot of Power 5 programs and Lane Kiffin’s offense is QB-friendly.

Homefield Advantage for all 133 College Football Teams in 2023

One of the questions we get asked often in our media appearances is “how much is homefield advantage worth in college football? The answer in most seasons is around 3 points. However, if recent years homefield has not meant nearly as much as it did 20 years ago. You could make a case that homefield is arguably closer to 2.5 points now as compared to 3.5 or 4 points in 2000. Below is our homefield numbers for every college football team and also a comparison to what we used last year. Notice there are some subtleties to the numbers. So if you’re wondering how a team like Wyoming can have the same homefield advantage as a team like Florida State, note that Wyoming plays in 7,200 feet of elevation which is unique with or without fans. Alabama and Clemson both have 4-point homefield advantages (most in CFB). Meanwhile Akron, Ball St, Bowling Green, Eastern Michigan and Massachusetts all have 1.5 or 1.25-point homefield advantages (least in CFB).

CFB Season Win Totals at Draft Kings with Brad Powers' Numbers

Notes: The Open # column = opening season win number on May 4th. The Open + Vig column = the opening number plus the vigorish. That means if the season win total opened at 6.5 with the normal -110 vigorish, it would be 6.5. However, if the season win total was 6.5 but the OVER was -120, the + Vig # would = 6.6. If the OVER was -130, the + Vig # would = 6.7. Similarly, if the season win total was 6.5 and the UNDER was -120, the + Vig # would = 6.4. -130 would equal 6.3, etc.

The Current columns = the current numbers as of July 9th. The BP column is what we make the season win total.

Week 1 Computer Projected Lines for Every CFB Game

For the past seven seasons we have posted computer projected lines for every game on Wednesday. Games where there was of difference of more than 3 points saw our computer lines actually beat the Vegas line at a 468-395-14 (54.2%) clip! That's pretty solid and actually better than our own handicapping in some seasons. Keep in mind, these computer lines don't take into consideration off-the-field factors like revenge or flat spots or if there are late-week injuries. They are basically a power-rating number difference between the two teams that also takes into consideration the home field advantage.

Of the 13 games where our computer is off more than 3 points compared to the Vegas line (highlighted), our favorite team this week to back would be Virginia Tech -13.

The Comp column is the computer projected line and the Diff column is the difference between the Vegas line and the Computer line. "+" numbers in the difference column say back the underdog. "-" numbers in the difference column say back the favorite. Let us know if you have questions.

Betting CFB Openers

Every Sunday in Vegas at 11am PT, Circa Sports is the first book in the world to release CFB lines and we bet them every week. We think it's the best value bets we make all week. 2020 was the first season where we tracked every single bet we made and posted them in the weekly newsletters. We were very pleased with our 119-76-3 (61%) record on these Sunday bets with an average line value of 2.6 ppg! In 2021, we were 224-196-5 vs the Circa openers with an average line value of 1.8 ppg. In 2022, we were 314-262-14 (CLV 417-122-51 +1.65 ppg). Week 1 lines came out in May for all the FBS vs FBS games. Below is some of what we bet already. As of now we've gotten the best of the line on 90-plus percent of our bets by an average of 1.8 ppg.

Season Win 11.25

Early Bets/Notes: The two-time defending National Champs are trying to become the first team to "3-peat" in the AP Poll era (since 1936). The Bulldogs are well-positioned to do so with more experience than last year's team. We think new QB Carson Beck will have a big season and bet him 40/1 to win the Heisman. Georgia will be a 2-TD-plus favorite in 11 of their 12 games as they play the weakest schedule in the SEC. We bet them +375 to win it all.

#4 Alabama

11/11	at Kentucky	-10.3	75%
11/18	Chattanooga	N/A	100%
11/25	at Auburn	-10.5	76%

Season Win 9.80

Early Bets/Notes: We have never bet Alabama UNDER their season win total but did so this year at UNDER 10.5 -135. While the Crimson Tide will be favored in all 12 games, there's 6 games where we have them less than an 11-point favorite. They are significantly worse at QB this year. Remember the last two regular seasons have featured a total of 10 games decided by one possession. Now the Tide can't rely on QB Bryce Young to save them.

11/18	Georgia State	-34.3	97%

Season Win 9.40

Early Bets/Notes: We think this year's LSU team is much better than last year's team which won the West division. Jayden Daniels is back at QB (we bet him 20/1 to win the Heisman) and they are much improved on the OL. We have the Tigers favored in 11 of their 12 games (exception at Alabama). We bet OVER 8.5 Wins -172 and are very happy with that bet. The opener vs a Top 10 FSU team will give us an idea just how good they can be.

Early Bets/Notes: Ole Miss will have one of the best offenses in the country and we bet OVER 7 Wins. However, the No. 3 toughest schedule will prevent them from contending in the West.

Early Bets/Notes: It could be a tough first season for Zach Arnett as they install a new offensive system. The saving grace is a schedule that has 8 home games and an easy non-conf slate.

Early Bets/Notes: For all the "doom and gloom" in Columbus, the Buckeyes were one missed FG away from winning the National Championship last year. While there are questions at QB and OL, the RB and WR positions are arguably the best in the country. We also think the defense will be much improved in year two under DC Knowles. The Buckeyes will be favored in 11 of their 12 games but the season won't be considered a success unless they win in Ann Arbor.

Season Win		10.54

Early Bets/Notes: The two-time defending Big Ten champs might be even better in 2023. McCarthy is back at QB and so is the outstanding RB duo of Corum and Edwards. The OL is among the best in the nation along with the DL. The question marks are at WR and the No. 2 CB position. The Wolverines should cruise to 9-0 before a road trip to Happy Valley and the finale vs Ohio State. The only thing missing from Harbaugh's resume is a National Championship.

#7 Penn St

Season Win		9.68

Early Bets/Notes: The defending Rose Bowl champs could be better this season if QB Allar lives up to his 5★ potential. The RB duo of Singleton/Allen should be improved in their sophomore seasons. The DL could have the best set of pass rushers in the country led by Robinson, Isaac and Dennis-Sutton. The Nittany Lions figure to be double-digit favorites in 10 of their 12 games. Can James Franklin finally get over the Michigan and Ohio St hump?

Early Bets/Notes: The Badgers made one of the best hires of the off-season bringing in Fickell from Cincy. We expect him to win immediately even with a brand system on offense.

Early Bets/Notes: The schedule is friendly for the Hawkeyes with no Michigan or Ohio State. The defense will be great again but can transfer QB McNamara ignite the offense?

Early Bets/Notes: The Gophers play one of the toughest schedules in the country. However, Fleck has this program rolling winning 11, 9 and 9 games excluding the 2020 Covid season.

Season Win		6.71

Early Bets/Notes: Were the Fighting Illini a one-year wonder last year? We don't think so as they have one of the best DL's in CFB. How will the secondary look after losing 3 draft picks?

#41 Maryland

Early Bets/Notes: The Terps could have the 4th most talented roster in the Big Ten behind the "Big 3" in the East. Tagovailoa is back at QB but the OL remains the biggest ? mark.

Early Bets/Notes: The Mel Tucker era has been up and down to say the least. We don't see them bouncing back this year as the Spartans play one of the toughest schedules in the country.

Season Win 6.22

Early Bets/Notes: We think Nebraska made a great hire in Rhule. However, after 6 straight losing seasons we think the 6.5 win total is too optimistic and we bet the UNDER.

Season Win 4.25

Early Bets/Notes: We think the Scarlet Knights are much improved this year but they are still out-classed in the Big Ten East. They also pull road trips to Wisconsin and Iowa from the West. We bet UNDER 4.5.

Season Win 9.60

Early Bets/Notes: On paper, this could be the best Florida State team in nearly a decade. Fresh off a 10-win season, the Noles are among the most experienced teams in the country. They are led by QB Jordan Travis who we bet to win the Heisman at 12/1. Also keep an eye on DE Jared Verse who could be the first defensive player taken in next year's draft. We will know just how good the Noles are by the end of September with games vs LSU and Clemson.

Season Win 9.74

Early Bets/Notes: After missing the playoffs each of the last two seasons, we think the Tigers could be in store for a bounce-back. We love the new OC Riley and QB Klubnik should be more confident in his sophomore season. Shipley returns at RB and the front 7 on defense is among the very best in CFB. We also like the schedule as the Tigers play their 3 toughest opponents all at home in Florida St, Notre Dame and North Carolina. We bet OVER 9.5.

Season Win 8.23

Early Bets/Notes: Obviously, QB Maye is one of the very best in CFB. We bet him 28/1 to win the Heisman even though we're not sure the Tar Heels will win enough games. The Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes were all ranked in the Top 15 in recruiting so this is a very talented roster. The major questions are on defense and the coaching staff. The schedule sets up nicely as the Tar Heels could be favored in as many as 10-11 games.

Early Bets/Notes: Before the move to the SEC next season, the Longhorns are clearly the team to beat in the Big 12. QB Ewers should be improved, the WR corps is among the best in CFB and the OL is much more experienced. The defense made great strides last year. We project Texas to be favored in 11 of their 12 games and bet OVER 9.5 Wins.

Early Bets/Notes: Last year was an absolute disaster for Venables as the Sooners had their first losing season in more than two decades. This year's team is much improved and plays an advantageous schedule where we project OU to be favored in 11 games. They were also favored in 11 last year and went 6-7. We bet OVER 8.5 Wins -188.

Early Bets/Notes: Regression is coming for TCU after they shocked the CFB world last year making it all the way to the National Championship game. The Horned Frogs lose 8 draft picks including QB Duggan. Still, they could be favored in their first 7 games before a brutal 5-game stretch to close the season. We bet UNDER 8.5 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: The Bears took a major step back last year. We're not sure they are going to be that much better this year after losing a bunch on the OL. Despite 8 home games, we bet UNDER 7.5.

Early Bets/Notes: Lot of roster turnover for OK St. It's a tough team to forecast considering we have all 11 of their FBS games priced in the single-digits. We did bet UNDER 7 wins.

Early Bets/Notes: Obviously, USC over-achieved last year and this year's team is much better especially on defense. The defending Heisman Trophy winner is back at QB in Caleb Williams and is surrounded by some of the best skill position talent in all of CFB. The schedule is interesting as the Trojans should coast to a 6-0 start before a much tougher final 6 games. Still, we bet OVER 9.5 Wins.

11/18	at Arizona	-15.7	88%
11/25	Colorado	-28.2	96%
Season Win		8.88

Early Bets/Notes: The two-time defending Pac-12 champs return enough experience to make a run at a 3rd straight title in 2023. QB Cam Rising is back but is coming off an ACL injury suffered in the Rose Bowl. The OL and DL remain the best in the Pac-12. What worries us a bit about this year is arguably the toughest schedule in Utah history as the Utes play 11 Power 5 teams starting with a huge home game vs Florida.

#13 Oregon

11/24	Oregon State	-7.3	69%
Season Win		9.31

Early Bets/Notes: Dan Lanning had a successful first season winning 10 games. However, it still felt a little underwhelming after close losses to rivals Washington and Oregon State down the stretch where they blew late leads. QB Bo Nix returns and we bet him 20/1 to win the Heisman. This is still one of the most talented rosters in the league. Can they finish better in close games? We have 5 games priced at a TD or less.

#15 Washington

Early Bets/Notes: The defending MAC champs are the most talented team in the MAC (like most seasons). QB Finn returns and the secondary could be the best unit in the entire Group of 5. While we project them to be favored in 11 games, keep in mind, head coach Candle has lost 7 games the last two years as a TD-plus favorite.

Early Bets/Notes: A possible sleeper in this conference. Keep in mind, the Redhawks had to play with a freshman backup QB for most of last season and now QB Gabbert returns. The schedule is among the weakest in the country. Miami could be favored in as many as 8 games and we bet OVER 6.5 wins.
