

Today

Life at Potter Children's Home is constantly changing. Our residents may change through the years, but one thing that never changes is the need for prayers for this ministry. Whether it is praying for a new single parent family that has just moved in, helping a girl in the girls' house work towards independence or a boy in the boys' house that is working on family therapy – the residents here need your prayers.

Potter Children's Home and Family Ministries
Day of Prayer & Giving For Children

We have done this for the last several years and the time has come again for another opportunity to help. We will spend our time today talking about serving children.

Additionally we will have a special contribution that day for Potter Children's Home. It was decided at the Bus. Mtg. of Sept. 11, 2022 to send $400 from the church treasury along with what individuals give today.

Children Are Quick

via House to House Heart to Heart

Teacher: Why are you late? Student: Class started before I got here.

Teacher: Glen, why do you get so dirty? Glen: I'm a lot closer to the ground than you are.

Teacher: Now, Simon, tell me frankly, do you say prayers before eating?

Simon: No sir, I don't have to; my Mom is a good cook.

Teacher: Clyde, your composition on 'My Dog' is exactly the same as your brother's. Did you copy his?

Clyde: No, sir. It's the same dog.

Teacher: Harold, what do you call a person who keeps on talking when people are no longer interested?

Harold: A teacher.

Teacher: George Washington not only chopped down his father's cherry tree but also admitted it.

Now, Louis, do you know why his father didn't punish him?

Louis: Because George still had the axe in his hand.

Let The Children Come

by Glen Elliot Greenbrier church of Christ Greenbrier, Arkansas

Children are special gifts from the Lord (Psalm 127:3). Most would agree, though some might find them inconvenient, even bothersome. The disciples of our Lord found themselves among those who preferred that children “be seen but not heard.” The inspired record is clear in describing Jesus as having a different attitude toward children. As parents were bringing their children to Jesus so that He might lay hands on them and bless them, the disciples began rebuking them (Lk. 18:15). One might speculate that the disciples, being aware of the great burden Jesus bore in His daily ministry, were thinking of blessing children as an interruption or distraction. Not so, for Jesus made this an important teaching point for His disciples, saying, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of God” (Luke 18:16, NKJV).

Jesus identifies childlike trust and humility as essential traits of discipleship. On another occasion, when the disciples seemed most concerned about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven, Jesus placed a child before them, saying, “unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 18:3-4, NKJV).

While we must love and provide for the best interests of our children, let us never forget the great lessons we must learn from them! “Jesus loves the little children” and so must we by seeing to, not only their physical and emotional needs, but also their spiritual and eternal well-being.
