Alleluia, it's Easter!

Queen of heaven, rejoice, alleluia.
The Son whom you merited to bear, alleluia,
has risen as he said, alleluia.
Pray for us to God, alleluia.
Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia!
For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.
Let us pray:

O God, who through the resurrection of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, did vouchsafe to give joy to the world; grant, we beseech you, that through his Mother, the Virgin Mary, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

-Regina Caeli Prayer

Easter Octave

The Octave of Easter comprises the eight days, which stretch from the first Sunday of Easter to the Second Sunday of Easter. It is a way of prolonging the joy of the initial day. In a sense, every day of the Octave is like a little Sunday. The Octave ends next Sunday, April 11th with Divine Mercy Sunday.

Families in Faith

Enjoy this Easter season with your families! This is a beautiful season to celebrate at home. There are many ways you can keep celebrating the Easter season at home. Get a white candle blessed by Fr. Tom and light it each night for a time of prayer – you could even pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet! Or consider making a Resurrection set with your children, a free printable cut out versions can be found with a quick search on websites like catholicicing.com

Continue to use the flash cards given out previously to help your child learn about the different objects in the church. Encourage them to be engaged by being engaged yourself, and ask them questions about the Mass afterwards. Through everyday actions and conversations you as the domestic church are able to teach and pass on the faith to your child, do not be discouraged!
