

Local Youths Selected for Annapolis and West Point

Word has been received that Cong. U. S. Guyer has named the following Kansas City Kansas boys for two places at the U. S. Naval academy, Annapolis, and one place at the U. S. Military academy at West Point.

Annapolis: Frank Spillman, principal; Jefferson W. Mitchell, second alternate; James Forbes, tributes a thrilling sword dance to the husky Cossack whirls about the s about his person and the manner me of the most sensational dances third alternate. Stanley Willis of Humbolt is the first alternate.

Annapolis: Dale Burtner, first alternate; Roy Jindra, second alternate; Richard Shannon, third alternate; Chester Gates of Baldwin, principal.

West Point: Lester G. Taylor, first alternate, and William N. Todd, jr., alternate. Charles Floro, Pleasanton, principal.