World Day of Prayer for Vocations April 25th

The Fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ, the Good Shepherd, continues to lead his people through His Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and calls many to follow Him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people.

The Atlantic Association of Catholic Youth Ministers are seeking young people aged 12-24 to join a series of virtual conversations (via Zoom) originally initiated by the CCCB and the Canadian Catholic Youth Ministry Network. These sessions are scheduled to take place on an ongoing basis beginning in May and will be an opportunity for young people across Atlantic Canada to gather and talk about issues important to them in 2021 and how we as a faith community can respond to them. All young people in this age range are welcome to join the conversation. For more information contact Trevor.

Mondays at the Movies

Everyone is invited to join our film discussion series this Easter season designed to connect popular films to our faith. On May 3rd, we will meet via Zoom at 6:30 pm to discuss the film Signs (2002) starring Mel Gibson. For each session, participants will have watched the film ahead of time. Contact Karen for more information and to register at or ihmccatechism@rogers.com or 387-4198. Mondays at the Movies is a collaborative effort between St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Pastoral Unit and the Archdiocese of Moncton Office of Youth Faith Development.

Faith Experiments Express

Designed for young people in grades 1-6, participants will be guided step by step through various fun and simple science experiments that will help them to learn more about faith and scripture. The next sessions will take place via Zoom on April 26th and May 10th at 6:30 pm. Register by contacting Karen at 387-4198 or ihmccatechism@rogers.com.

Faith Experiments Express is a collaborative effort between St. Elizabeth of the Trinity Pastoral Unit and the Archdiocese of Moncton Office of Youth Faith Development.

Today, the 4th Sunday of Easter, is the familiar parable of the Good Shepherd. Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father."

Growing up in a solid Catholic family and benefiting from Catholic schooling, I always had an image of shepherds as being kind, loving, patient, strong and self-sacrificing. And I also gathered that sheep can be rather stupid and foolish creatures (which may be a good symbol for us sometimes). Nevertheless, I always felt comfort in knowing that no matter what I did or how "far away" I wandered or what "wolf" came my way, I knew I had the unwavering support of the Divine Shepherd. His love can be seen in the unwavering love of a parent, sibling, a priest, doctor, nurse, teacher or dear friend.

The care of a shepherd is like a mother's love. One of the prime characteristics of motherhood is the courage to lay down your life for someone you love. The love is tender and yet can be fierce. It means teaching the difference between right and wrong. It means showing up, being present, caring, not expecting somebody else to handle it. It means compassion, knowing we are all in this together. It means supporting when necessary; encouragement when one is down, just always being there. When my mother died I had been happily married for 16 years with 2 children and yet I felt a deep loss of no longer having her to "come home" to. Throughout my life, she was my Good Shepherd. I knew I could go to her for anything. It was difficult at first but then I realized that I could continue this legacy of being a strong mother. I hope my sons know they can "come home" anytime they need to. I also know that I will do my utmost to protect them from the "wolf". Of course, it is not just mothers who do this. It is anyone in a mothering role, a father, or a godmother, a grandmother. They are all Good Shepherds, who lay down their lives for those they love.

Pope Francis has also compared priests to good shepherds. He calls on priests who are entrusted with the care of others to look after their flock. He knows that it is a difficult life especially in our modern world. As a child growing up in the 50s, early 60s, I caught a glimpse of what life was like for a priest. My mother's cousin was a priest and he would sometimes visit us on his vacation. However, he had to say Mass every day at that time. My sister and I would accompany him to the convent of Holy Cross Sisters where he would say Mass in their chapel. I thought, "What kind of vacation is this? You don't even get to 'not work'". I admired him for his resiliency and personal sacrifice in his life as a priest. It gave me a respect for priests and their never-ending 'work'. Bob Russell wrote, "A good shepherd sacrifices. A priest sacrifices time, money and energy for his parishioners. They see that he is there. Integrity and consistency represent essential virtues for priests. His 'flock' sees that he is there to weep with them when they weep and rejoice with them when they rejoice. They know he cares."

Pope Francis also stated, "Let us be good sheep in the fold of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. Our local parish is our sheepfold and our pastors are our shepherds. Hence, as the good sheep of the parish, parishioners are expected to a) hear and follow the voice of their shepherds through their homilies, counseling and advice, b) receive the spiritual food that our pastors provide, by participation in Mass and receiving Holy Communion and c) cooperating with our pastors by encouraging them in their duties and praying for them."

There are many good shepherds in our world. May they, and we, look to the Good Shepherd for support and guidance especially during our difficult times.

We Need Your Help*“Just as you cannot understand Christ apart from the kingdom he came to bring, so too your personal mission is inseparable from the building of that kingdom.”* Gaudete et Exsultate (Rejoice and be Glad) Pope Francis – Paragraph 25

In response to the 2018 encyclical Gaudete et Exsultate the Adult Faith Commission, which has representation from the three Moncton area parish groupings, has been mandated by Archbishop Vienneau to put our faith into action in a way that can help families within our geographic area. With that in mind, representatives from the AFC recently met with Vincent Merola from the City of Moncton and Valerie McIntosh from the non profit organization, Isthmus, formerly known as “Blessings in a Backpack”. Isthmus is a charity that provides for families who face food insecurity. They pack bags of food for children and their families that will bridge them from when they leave school on Friday until they return on Monday. Currently they serve 734 children in 33 Moncton area schools. The need is great, but the labourers are few, to paraphrase a quote from Scripture. In our meeting, Valerie outlined a concrete way our faith communities could provide help. She said that one thing they are in need of, but most often cannot afford to purchase, is soup. She was saying that a Soup Drive among all our parishes would be of great help. With that in mind, we would like to do a Soup Drive from May 1st through May 17th. Just bring your donation to your own parishes and we will arrange for pick up. Most parishes already have a basket in their churches for donations to the food bank, so when you bring in your cans please mark them as being for the Soup Drive. Thank you for your consideration of this ministry. I feel I can speak for all of us in saying that nobody wants to see a child go hungry. Mike Jeffries, Susan McCarthy, Mark Mahoney, Fr.
