FEATHERS IN THE WIND

Do you believe in angels? I guess I do. I don't necessarily believe in these huge creatures in white robes with wings, but I do believe that God gives us angels when we need them even in human form.

I am referring to that person who left a cute bar of soap and some wash clothes by our door. No name so we have no idea who left them. What about that mystery person who made a box and left it by the "prayer tree" on the Amana Trail?

How about that little woman who always answers the phone with a cheery voice and is willing to listen even if she is cooking something and then giggles making the day special?

How about those "angels" who put out pots of flowers at the entrance to town or mow and clean up areas that need some loving help. Those are the "angels" that are often not asked, but just do it. They walk away expecting nothing in response except the good feeling they have in their hearts knowing that they are doing God's work.

I especially like those "angels" who hold a young or an old person's hand when they have trouble walking over a rocky road. If you look closely they always have a smile on their face which they inconspicuously share with the person's hand they are holding. (Just look the next time!)

There are also those angels we never hear or see. They are praying for others and only wishing them others well. They don't put others down, but lift them up to glory...the glory of God.

Angels are "people" who show love by their actions. I doubt they are even conscience of what they are doing and just make life more beautiful for others.

The other day "angels" got me the picture, "Christiana's World" by Andre Wyeth. I happen to be someone who likes Andrew Wyeth's paintings a lot and even have made the supreme effort of going to Kansas City to see the originals when they were on tour.

AMANA NEWS AND NOTES

CCA Class of 2018 Graduates

One hundred and twenty-eight graduates received their diplomas from Clear Creek Amana High School at the Class of 2018 graduation ceremonies Friday evening in Tiffin.

2018 Senior Class Officers are: President Danielle Wnek; Riley Hennes, Vice-President; David Jensen, Secretary; Stone Grell, Treasurer.

Class Valedictorians: Graham Sandersfeld, Riley Hennes, Nicole Wichart and Seb Johanson.

The musical interlude and processional was provided by the CCA High School Concert Band under the direction of John Smith.

Danielle Wnek, recipient of the George and Nora Foerstner College Scholarship, welcomed those attending to the ceremony and thanked the faculty and staff on behalf of the Class of 2018 reflecting upon memories from their time as students at CCA. Riley Hennes, class vice president, introduced the CCA Board of Directors and thanked retiring instructor Kristen Morlan, who served as the class sponsor.

Brief remarks were made by graduating seniors Nicole Wichhart, Sophia Aquiree and Seb Johanson who reflected on their class's achievements and hopes for the future, before the distribution of the diplomas and the traditional "cap toss." Congratulations to CCA Class of 2018.

WHIRLPOOL ADOPTS 220TH TRAIL

On May 1, a team of 19 Whirlpool Corporation employees spent the afternoon picking up debris and cigarette butts along the roadway of 220th Trail. Whirlpool Corporation is a sponsor of the Iowa Department of Transportation’s Adopt-A-Highway program and helps maintain and enhance the beauty of 220th Trail, the street where the refrigeration manufacturing plant has been located for approximately 84 years. The Whirlpool Partnership Committee generated employee volunteers to provide the cleanup between the company’s west entrance in Middle Amana to the four-way stop in Amana.

My sister gave me a book about the painter to read which only renewed a whole new love of the paintings. I became obsessed with having two paintings (obviously not the originals), but had no idea where to even locate copies.

First one “angel” found a listing on Amazon, a second one ordered the painting for me and the third angel bought it. Now to find another “angel” to hang one or both pictures.

Then there was that “angel” who came for a visit the other evening. I sometimes feel as if people do not feel welcome in our house...I am not the host or hostess that my parents were. This person just talked, asked nothing of us, but listened and made us feel special.

What a pleasant evening that was! I mean just having someone come for a visit and not minding if the house looks like it could use a good cleaning or you do not have an ice maker so the ice cubes leave something to be desired. These are the people who make you feel special and perhaps have a purpose in life not being a lowly outcast.

Jesus gave us two great commandments. The first one was to love the Lord with your whole soul. The second one was/is harder...to love one another.

That’s is about the time you should look around for an “angel” and just watch how he/she/it handles life. You usually find out it is with LOVE...not judgement. It won’t be easy, but we can all try. We all need God even if He sometimes sends a person to us in human form. B.S.H.

To the Amana Community
from Alan Schumacher Republican Candidate for Iowa County Supervisor

I respectfully seek your support in the June 5th primary for the elected position of Iowa County Supervisor.

I Believe:

- * We need to enhance collaboration and communication with all communities within our county.
- * All citizens and organizations that approach the board of supervisors need to be treated with courtesy and professionalism

*Taxpayers are our clients and the revenue received from their taxes need to be managed as would a business be managed, seeking the best resolution to a determined expenditure

*Finally, I believe in accountability for decisions made

I am optimistic about the future of our county and the potential that it may have!

During my professional career, I have interacted with elected local, regional and state officials in developing processes and relationships that will assist myself as a county supervisor.

PAST PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- *Logistics Manager Cedar Graphics, Hiawatha, Iowa 1996-2002
- *Plant Manager City Carton, Cedar Rapids, Iowa 2002-2014
- *General Manager Can Shed, Cedar Rapids, Iowa 2015-2016
- *General Manager/Director of Business Development, Quincy Recycle 2016-current

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION/LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

- *Vice President of the Iowa Recycling Association Board of Directors, Legislative Chairman 2016-current
- *Goodwill of the Heartlands Business Advisory Board 2007-2016
- *Print Industries of the Midlands Board of Directors 2007-2016
- * Marengo Township Trustee 2002-current
- * Iowa Valley School Foundation Board of Director 2014-2017
- * Marengo Recreation President 1991-1998
- * Marengo Golf Club President 2007
- *Iowa Valley Chain Gang 2001-current

As a child, I grew up on a farm north of Marengo. I have been married 37 years to my high school sweetheart, Joyce. Together we have 3 children and 6 grandchildren. I am a lifelong resident of Iowa County.

Thank you for your consideration.
