

Comedian Chris Shaw

Unusual? Always. Predictable? Never. Hilarious? Definitely!

Comedian Chris Shaw comes to town bringing his bouncy, cleverly physical style, and show's how this national headliner has become a crowd favorite! While placing his faith in observation, agility and wit, Shaw draws his audiences in through bizarre metaphors and hilarious facial expressions, bringing the crowd along for the ride...only to send them into unsuspecting comedy waters. This frequent cable performer is available for a side-splitting evening of funny business at YOUR NEXT EVENT!

Chris is highly regarded as powerhouse comedy talent, having performed more than 3,500 club, college, festival and corporate shows in his career. He's been seen in large venues opening for the likes of "Weird Al" Yankovic, Ralphie May and Brian Regan and on shows such as Comedy Central, VH-1 and A&E's Comedy on the Road.

His expert timing, explosive enthusiasm, and radiant passion for his audiences is always evident, whether speaking to class of high school students, or closing a national sales meeting. If your event or business could use a little humor, contact Chris to setup everything from a one-man show to an entire "comedy night" for your venue!
