STATEMENT OF WELCOME

We, the community of First Lutheran Church of Bothell, proclaim the message that the grace of our Lord is infinitely inclusive and that everyone is welcome. We believe that Christ calls us to reconciliation and wholeness in a world of alienation and brokenness.

As a Reconciling in Christ congregation and as disciples of Christ seeking justice and reconciliation among all peoples, we at First Lutheran Church welcome all into the fullness of God's love. We welcome everyone, without exception and regardless of sex, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, physical and mental ability, age, or station in life. We recognize that each person is a unique creation of God, and through grace, a child of God.

All are welcome at First Lutheran.

All are welcome to worship, to hear the Good News, to receive the sacraments, and to share in fellowship and service. As members of First Lutheran Church, we pledge ourselves and our congregation to exercise our faith in Christ, treasuring one another's similarities while embracing our God-given differences. We pledge that we will strive to live as a reconciling people, in our life together and in our outreach to the world.

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

All who are baptized into Christ have put on Christ. In his baptism, Don was clothed with Christ. In the day of Christ's coming, he shall be clothed with glory. Eternal God, maker of heaven and earth, who formed us from the dust of the earth, who by your breath gave us life,

We glorify you.

Jesus Christ, the resurrection and the life, who suffered death for all humanity, who rose from the grave to open the way to eternal life,

We praise you.

Holy Spirit, author and giver of life, the comforter of all who sorrow, our sure confidence and everlasting hope,

We worship you.

To you, O blessed Trinity, be glory and honor, forever and ever.

Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

O God of grace and glory,

we remember before you today our brother Don. We thank you for giving him to us to know and to love as a companion in our pilgrimage on earth. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see that death has been swallowed up in the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ, so that we may live in confidence and hope until, by your call, we are gathered to our heavenly home in the company of all your saints; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

TIME OF REMEMBRANCE: we take time to remember Don and the stories that remind us of the wonderful man he was.

WORD

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 9:2, 6-7

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness —
on them light has shined.

<sup>6</sup>For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named

Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
 Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
<sup>7</sup>His authority shall grow continually,
 and there shall be endless peace
 for the throne of David and his kingdom.
 He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness
 from this time onward and forevermore.
 The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

SECOND READING: Galatians 5:22-23

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup>gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things.

GOSPEL HYMN: Thine Is the Glory (ELW 376)

death hath lost its sting! Thine is the glo - ry, ris - en, con-qu'ring to thy home a - bove.

Son; end - less is the vic - t'ry thou o'er death hast won!

GOSPEL READING: John 7:37-41

On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, <sup>38</sup>and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water.'" <sup>39</sup>Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified. <sup>40</sup>When they heard these words, some in the crowd said, "This is really the prophet." <sup>41</sup>Others said, "This is the Messiah." But some asked, "Surely the Messiah does not come from Galilee, does he?"

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Let us pray.

Almighty God, in holy baptism you have knit your chosen people together into one communion of saints in the body of Christ. Give to your whole church in heaven and on earth your light and your peace. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Grant that all who have been baptized into Christ's death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to share the new life in Christ. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Give courage and faith to all who mourn, and a sure and certain hope in your loving care, that, casting all their sorrow on you, they may have strength for the days ahead. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that, where this world groans in grief and pain, your Holy Spirit may lead us to bear witness to your light and life. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Help us, in the midst of things we cannot understand, to believe and trust in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection to life everlasting. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

God of all grace, we give you thanks because by his death our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed the power of death and by his resurrection he opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers. Make us certain that because he lives we shall live also, and that neither death nor life, nor things present nor things to come, will be able to separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

COMMENDATION

Let us commend Don to the mercy of God, our maker and redeemer.

Silence for reflection.

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant Don.
Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light.

Amen.

SENDING

May the silence of the hills,
the joy of the winds,
the peace of the fields,
the music of the birds,
the fire of the sun,
the strength of the trees,
and the faith of a little child,
in all of which is God,
go with you and be with you today and always.

Amen.

DONALD V. KLEIN

March 31, 1031—June 23,2018

Don Klein, 87, passed away on June 23, 2018. He grew up near Lake Harriet in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the second son of Evelyn and Victor Klein. He was particularly close to his grandmothers, Adeline Holt and Harriet Klein, and to his brother, Dick, his closest life-long friend. He majored in Art at Saint Olaf College, highlighted by his studies under Arnold Flaten. There he met Anna-Marie Burgess, his "wild Norwegian" whom he adored for the rest of his life. He studied architecture at the University of Minnesota, interrupted by two years in the U.S. Navy serving on the aircraft carrier, USS Leyte. In 1955, Don and Anna-Marie married and lived in Norfolk, Virginia for his final year in the service, returning to Minnesota to complete his degree. In 1959, they moved to England where Don earned his Master's Degree in Town Planning and Civic Design at the University of Liverpool. They lived in Saint Paul, MN, and then in Kirkland, WA, where they stayed for the rest of their lives. They have four children - John (Maria Pastoor), Andrew (Mary Gabriel), Joanne, and Paul, and two grandchildren - Gabrielle and Hannah.

Don was a planner. He worked for the cities of Minneapolis and Seattle, and for U.S. Housing and Urban Development from the 1970s until his retirement, planning neighborhoods and Indian housing in Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington. He designed to respect the landscape, putting parks in flood plains and houses oriented to enjoy views. He prioritized designing homes to work for their families' needs, whether in fishing villages or in suburbs. He particularly loved doing site inspections, which combined his love of travel and his dedication to quality site development. His planning skills informed his church duties. When the church needed an elevator, Don did the same detailed research that he brought to his career; when the church redesigned the sanctuary, he visited dozens of churches to research floorplans, furnishings, and color possibilities.

Don planned for fun. He loved travel - the careful, detailed planning beforehand; the travel itself with its conversations, new foods, and historical markers; and organization of his pictures afterwards. He took Anna-Marie on her first camping trip, and they took their family camping in the Black Hills with army surplus gear. He took the family on road trips, exploring every route between Washington and Minnesota to see family, to family reunions in Alberta, Canada, and on an epic journey from Seattle to New York City and Washington, D.C. in a station wagon. Later in life, he walked regularly and extensively, carefully tracking his mileage until he had walked around the world. He then applied new mileage for going pole-to-pole, while noting he might not live long enough to make it. Finally, Don loved cars - driving them, drawing them, and studying them. He could identify car models from his childhood just by their front grills, including details on their design histories. As a child, he wrote to the Pullman Car Company for plans so that he could do detailed drawings of buses and trolleys. He drew cars on his class notes, meeting agendas, and church bulletins. He could look at a drawing later and remember what was said when he drew it.

Don was an artist as well as a planner. His art was a mission of faith. He designed banners for church services, weddings, and ordinations. He created designs for Maritime Ministry events and unique wedding invitations for family and friends. His greatest work was his Christmas cards. From his teen years into his 80s, he created a unique work of art every year to celebrate the Christmas message. Many of these were silk screened in the garage, with cards covering the basement to dry. At its height, the Christmas card list included over 400 families. Designs could reflect issues facing society, such as the card that portrayed the Holy Family living in a VW bus under the Alaska Way Viaduct and the card celebrating the love of God with flags from every side of global conflicts. He snuck in fun details such a canoe paddling down the living waters (John 7:38), and a hippy dancing for joy to the world. But most importantly, he grounded the card in the love and hope of the Christmas story.

Finally, Don was just Don. He had a photographic memory and could remember how to find his way anywhere he had been before, and the color of the front door. He was a totally linear thinker, balanced by Anna-Marie who was totally non-linear. They made it work for 62 years. He enjoyed going for haircuts with his son, Andy; he could untie knots with one hand; and he had so many near-death experiences from his many adventures that we lost track. Death finally caught him. He lived with a twinkle in his eye and a love for conversation. He will be very much missed by his surviving family, including his children and grandchildren, his brother, Richard, his brothers-in-law, Andrew Burgess (Jan Schuetz) and Joseph Burgess, and by his many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
