SUMMARY

The population of the village is 163, comprised of 76 males and 87 females.

The average age of the men was 30, the women 26.

There were 41 houses.

82 year old Ann Grimes, living on The Green and still working as a sempstress, was the oldest resident.

There were nine farmers.

The main occupation was that of agricultural labourer (17) with general labourer (7) and sempstress (6) having the next highest numbers.

There were only two framework knitters left working in the village (compare with 1851.)

Seven people identified themselves as employers, 55 were employees, with four saying they were neither.

35% of the population were born in Dadlington, with 14 people born in Stoke Golding and eight in both Hinckley and Shenton.

82% were born in Leicestershire. Ten came from Warwickshire.

Susan Petter, the 17 year old governess to the Scrivener family was born the furthest away, in Forfarshire, Scotland.
