It doesn't matter. Standing beside each other does.

WHEN WOMEN SUPPORT EACH OTHER, INCREDIBLE THINGS HAPPEN.

That's the Stand Beside Her Movement's purpose — to encourage women and girls to sing each other's praises, be each other's best source of support, and eliminate the current culture of comparison and competition against each other. The Movement begins on the playground and must carry over to the boardroom, and then also live in our homes with our families. Let's create a world where all women and girls are appreciated for their talents, strengths, and uniqueness.

May is Stand Beside Her month.

Stand Beside Her is a rally cry to inspire girls & women to stand up for each other and commit to ending unhealthy comparisons that divide & tear us down. We all know that feeling. By celebrating each other's talents and successes, we all rise — one courageous, confident girl & woman at a time.

LET'S PUT OUR WORDS INTO ACTION.

Female leaders understand this important mission.

Women's groups at powerhouse companies like FedEx®, ServiceMaster®, and AutoZone® believe in this movement. They embody this mentality to strengthen their teams and build up their female colleagues.

Stand Beside Her also promotes positive and productive professional relationships. Women face tall tasks and aim to exceed expectations — together. Women who support each other outwardly are also natural mentors — affecting all women and girls that cross their paths.

It takes a village of villages. Our mission is not unlike that of other corporate women's groups across the country. We all recognize the unique strengths and needs of women in the workplace. Getting the message out and putting it into action takes us all.
