GREETINGS FROM FATHER BABU...

I had a safe trip to India. Flights were all on time and I arrived without any delay. Now I am with my mom enjoying lots of delicious foods prepared by her. She and the rest of my family are doing well. Weather is really good, nights are in the 60s and days are in the 80s. Thanks for all your prayers.

*As you all know our biggest fundraiser "Mardi Gras" is under way. I am not there in person to promote it. But I trust in all of you to promote it to your family and friends. Please continue to do your best to make it a big success. Please keep praying and passing the word to everyone. Be assured of my prayers.

IN NEED OF VOLUNTEERS FOR ST. BENEDICT'S SHELTER

St. Pius X Catholic Church has been sponsoring food and shift volunteers on the third Thursday of the month for approximately eight years.

The residences of St. Benedict's are very grateful and appreciative for those who volunteer their time and service to this shelter. St. Pius X is currently in need of more volunteers to cover the three shifts each month.

What a great way to start the new year by becoming an evangelist for God by serving others.

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

St. Juliana of Cornillon

St. Juliana of Cornillon (1193-1258), also known as St. Juliana of Liège, was born near modern-day Liège, Belgium. When she was 5 years old, she and her twin sister became orphans. Following the deaths of their parents, the sisters were entrusted to the care of the Augustinian nuns at Mont-Cornillon. Growing up among the religious, Juliana's spiritual journey flourished. At age 13, she entered the order.

Juliana's profound love for Christ in the Eucharist was ignited during her time at the convent. She regularly participated in Mass and spent hours in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. In her prayers, she often experienced mystical visions, reinforcing her belief in the real presence of Jesus in the consecrated bread and wine.

Driven by her desire to see a dedicated feast to honor Christ in the Eucharist, St. Juliana took it upon herself to promote the idea fervently. She eventually became the Prioress of the canonry and frequently confided in her mentor, Canon John of Lausanne, telling him about her visions and her hope for the feast. He shared her experiences with his contemporaries, including Pope Urban IV.

Though Juliana died in 1258, her cause won over Pope Urban IV. In 1264 he issued the papal bill "Transiturus de hoc mundo" which instituted the Feast of Corpus Christi on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday. The feast aimed to celebrate and affirm the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, emphasizing the significance of the Blessed Sacrament in the life of the Church.

Juliana was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1869 and is remembered not only for the pivotal role she played in establishing the Feast of Corpus Christi, but for her musical talents, teachings, and writings. St. Juliana of Cornillon, pray for us!
