

6. For the Children

“Approximately twenty years ago on Christmas Eve, Susan and I took a walk outside into the dark, cold, clear night. Just as we stepped outside we suddenly heard something fall near us. Susan reached down and said, “It’s a rock.” We believed that it was a piece of a star that fell directly to us... We walked into the moonlit field and started talking about our love and desire for the children to be healed and happy. We started singing and making up this song.” - Dawna Hammers

For the Children we will love again

For the Children we will all be friends

For the Children we will learn to bend

For the Children we will not pretend

For the Children, For the Children

Oh let us live, oh let us learn to love and heal ourselves

For the Children, For the Children, For the Children, For the Children

For the Children we will take a chance

For the Children we will sing and dance

For the Children we will learn to change

For the Children we will stop the pain, stop the pain!

Oh let us live, oh let us learn to love and heal ourselves

For the Children, For the Children, For the Children we will love again

For the Children we will learn to grow

For the Children every seed we sow

For the Children we will hear the call

For the Children within us all, hear the call

Oh let us live, oh let us learn to love and heal ourselves

Oh let us live, oh let us learn to love and heal ourselves,
to love and heal ourselves, to love and heal ourselves
