

What is included in the $6400 evaluation fee

An initial 75-minute meeting to gather information

Up to nine hours test administration in the office

Up to one hour of record review/consultation with other professionals

Test scoring and interpretation

Preparation of a superbill detailing charges and diagnosis, which can be submitted to the insurance company

A 75-minute meeting at the conclusion of the evaluation to discuss the results.

Evaluation-related services not included in the evaluation fee, billed by the hour ($400)

Additional intake meetings

Additional feedback meetings

Telephone follow-up for questions that require more than 15 minutes to answer

School visits/program observations, including time to travel there and back

Attendance at IEP meetings, including time to travel there and back

Cancellations for which I receive fewer than 2 business days (48 hours) notice

Additional testing time that must be scheduled to accommodate lateness

Testing that requires more than nine hours to complete in the office

Record review and consultation with others in excess of one hour