

Ethics Test

Role of ethics usually falls into one of 2 categories they are

- a. Personal and developmental
- b. Professional and business
- c. Self and others
- d. Professional and non professional

Inalienable rights that were discussed are all but

- a. Right to privacy
- b. Right to informed consent
- c. Right to safety
- d. Right to bare arms

When does the client therapist relationship begin as discussed in the webinar

- a. On the first phone call
- b. As soon as the therapist lays hands on the client
- c. When they first meet face to face
- d. After they meet and the client shares their ailments, concerns and the therapist responds back

Who can break the client therapist relationship

- a. Neither it is an ionic bond
- b. Only the therapist
- c. Only the client
- d. Either the client or the therapist

Clients can look up to the therapist therefore we must

- a. Show compassion, kindness, and upmost respect
- b. Dismiss this action
- c. Over power them
- d. Not accept them

Talking at a table with another therapist about a client when the adjacent table overhears the conversation is

- a. Just rude they should not be listening
- b. Direct gossip
- c. Indirect gossip
- d. None of the above

Regarding sexual relations it is ok to have sex in the therapist office if the therapist and client both give mutual consent

- a. Always, you go boy
- b. Never in the office Dr Hawley said out of respect keep it professional
- c. Only if the therapist initiates after all it is their office
- d. None of the above

How long did the NCBTMB board state one should wait if the therapist and client wish to start a mutual relationship

- a. 1 day
- b. 12 month
- c. 6 month
- d. Get er done

When massaging what bodypart should NOT be used to massage the client.

- a. Head
- b. Elbow
- c. Forearm
- d. Feet

If an sexual incident occurs that is direct intent from the client that the therapist doesn't agree with they should

- a. Dismiss and continue hoping it will not happen again
- b. STOP and back away and confront
- c. Indulge
- d. Charge extra

This was a fun webinar

- a. What webinar
- b. Hell yea