Salon 12	F.8	Commons Today: Two Pilot Segments for a Documentary Film Series - Anne McKinnon
		Two pilot films for a documentary on commons issues; The series will introduce viewers to the vitality of commons issues in today's world, dispelling the popular impression that common property management is either outdated or doomed to failure. The series, focusing on commons issues in the developing and develop worlds, and in resources from groundwater to climate, will examine both challenges to and characteristics of successful common pool resource management. We seek IASC member comments to improve the series design.
