sharmila livingston

Delhi based musician, composer and Director; Sharmila has acquired the moniker of Singing Baker over the years due to her dual professions in music and food.

With a music degree from Wheaton College, Illinois, she has conceptualized, composed and directed several musicals, commissioned in celebration of major milestone events for schools, with casts ranging from 350-1000 members. She has been a choir member, soloist and Conductor of The Capital City Minstrels.

Over the years her creativity has spilled into several mediums including paper, fabric, food, hospitality. Sharmila has enjoyed counselling young adults and married couples, with her husband, and has lived in the US, Japan and India with her family who share her love for people, travel, languages and culture.

MUSICAL REPERTOIRE

Indian music arranged for choirs, Western classical music , Opera, Ballads, Gospel, Broadway, Jazz

Singers from CCM have participated in operas presented by the Neemrana Music Foundation, including 'Fakir of Benares', 'Pearl Fishers', 'If I were King' and 'Carmen'.

LE BEAU SOLEIL AND MIXED VOICES

Following CCM's Europe tour in 2015, two of the European host choirs scheduled India visits and concerts in 2016

- ♪ Le Beau Soleil – an all male Swiss choir visited New Delhi in February 2016, performing with CCM at the Swiss Embassy, the India International Centre and Neemrana Fort
- ♪ Mixed Voices - a German choir that CCM performed with in Geretstried, Germany, performed with CCM in New Delhi in November 2016

CCM looks for opportunities to share music with those who may not have the luxury to indulge in it as a pastime; or just to share our music with those who may need exposure to the joy and fulfillment it brings.

For example, we invited 30 children from a local orphanage to our recent concerts

Additional opportunities for sponsors - performance for raising funds for any NGO supported by the sponsor
