

Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now.

JOHN 2:10

BOGDAN SONJACHNY / SHUTTERSTOCK

What's New?

Few parties are more enjoyable than a wedding celebration. While the elegance of the flowers and the extravagance of the food and beverages captivate our senses, the real excitement is the love and promise of newness. New relationships are forged, a new family is created, and there's the possibility of new life. No wonder the relationship between God and the people is often described in marriage imagery, as we see in today's first reading.

This Old Testament passage is post-exilic. The alienation from God is over; the people and God are now reconciled. Much of the language suggests relationship: no longer forsaken or desolate, but now a delight and espoused (see Isaiah 62:4). Despite having been betrayed, God's mercy has transformed the nation back to its virginal state: "As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you" (62:5). This newness is something to celebrate.

The messianic character of the Cana story has long been recognized. All the newness I mentioned earlier is there, but newness now pertains to the entire community of believers and not simply to the marriage couple, who have no idea what is happening. An important detail of this story is the nature of the wine. What was originally water for ceremonial cleansing was transformed into wine, the quality of which was outstanding. This imagery tells us that there is a messianic banquet awaiting us, one that celebrates our intimate union with God. The joy we experience then will be intoxicating.

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

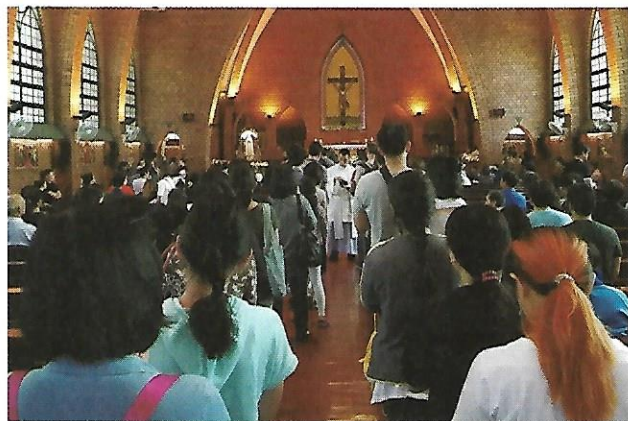

FOR Reflection

- ★ How might you describe your relationship with God?
- ★ Do you feel alienated from God? Remember, God's mercy can change that.

Dear Padre,

I work hard all week and look forward to sleeping in on Sundays. Why should I get out of bed and go to Mass?

I imagine that your parish provides suitable Mass times, even for late sleepers. But there are overpowering reasons for attending Mass. First, I'll discuss how the Mass is our present-day connection with the Last Supper, the Passover meal Jesus celebrated with his apostles. As observant Jews, they commemorated their ancestors' escape from slavery in Egypt. Jesus used his final Passover meal to teach us how to escape a bondage crueler than the Jews experienced in Egypt—the enslavement of sin.

The next day, Good Friday, Jesus would die on the cross. Think of it: Jesus, the second person of the Trinity, became human to teach us about God's love for us. The people's reaction to this goodness was to kill Jesus in an inhuman way.

In response, God would have been justified in destroying the world, as he did in reaction to the people's depravities during Noah's time. Instead, God gave us further evidence of his patience and forgiveness. There is nothing our Father would not forgive, including the sin of killing Jesus. At the Last Supper, Jesus said: "This is my blood..., which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins" (Matthew 26:28).

Jesus' death, which we remember during the Mass, liberates us from sin. It also liberates us from death itself. Because Jesus in his mortal body was willing to die, he shows us the plan God the Father has for each of us—a resurrection like Jesus'. The Eucharist is our thanksgiving for these gifts from God.

Fr. Gary Lauenstein, CSSR / Sundaybulletin@Liguori.org

We go to Mass because we are sinners and we want to receive God's pardon, to participate in the redemption of Jesus, in his forgiveness. The confession which we make at the beginning is not pro forma. It is a real act of repentance! I am a sinner and I confess it—this is how the Mass begins!

Capital Campaign Update

Cornerstone Campaign
OUR COMMUNITY. OUR CHURCH.
OUR LEGACY.

Dear Parishioners,

So many great things are happening! The painting is really coming along and you may have noticed, the entrance is under construction now, too. Nathan Davis and Windsor Valley Construction are working on our entrance and Ralph Young is refinishing the front doors. Joe Adams is busy on the inside with the painting and things are really moving along.

We want to reach out and send a huge thank you to Pat Stumbaugh, Dennis Cobb, and Dennis Benney. Most any day of the week, you will find these men inside or outside the church helping in any way they can. Everything would take so much longer without their help. They are working hard and are doing it for the good of the parish.

In addition, we had a fantastic crew of workers on Tuesday night that helped with the first shift of moving pews, pulling up carpet, cleaning out the sacristy, etc. in preparation for the flooring to be replaced. This group accomplished even more than we had hoped and they were a huge help. So thank you to: Pat Stumbaugh, Dennis Cobb, Dennis Benney, Tom Benney, Dustin Benney, Scott Benney, Jeff Arens, Ty Cothren, Jacob Lotton, and Mike Yelton. Grateful to have so much help show up and pitch in. Thank you for your time and energy!

We are so looking forward to the final product and will be so happy to share it with all of you. Thank you again for your generosity for the campaign. God Bless!

Message from Ms. Schroeder

Happy New Year and Welcome Back! We are into the second semester of the 2021-22 school year. With that being said, we are in the coldest time of the year. Please make sure your children are dressed appropriately with coats, hats, and gloves. Many things are considered when making decisions about inclement weather days. Student and staff safety is the primary concern of ICS and ECLC. Every effort will be made to provide cancellation notices as early as possible. As soon as the decision is made, employees and families are the first to be notified. ICS and ECLC closings will be sent via FACTS parent notification system, ICS Facebook page, Channel 8 KOMU, and Channel 13 KRCG. Please have updated phone numbers and email addresses on file with the office to ensure that you are properly notified. FACTS notifications will go out long before news stations have the chance to update their information.

Covid numbers are on the rise again within our county. Please remember if you are having any Covid symptoms to please stay home and see your healthcare provider. The CDC guidelines have changed once again. ICS and ECLC will ALWAYS follow the recommendations from the Montgomery County Health Department. I have included the updated CDC Covid/Quarantine guidelines for your review. If you are a close contact/exposed or have Covid please stay home, and notify the office as soon as possible. If you would like to discuss this matter in further detail please do not hesitate to call the office. With any illness DO NOT come to school while you are sick, and/or contagious. Please contact your healthcare provider or MCHD for guidance.

We will begin Catholic Schools Week with Mass (at the KC Hall) on Sunday, Jan. 30 at 10 am. We look forward to seeing you there!
