A Note from Rick: Markets were unchanged for the most part this week at TLA. Our numbers were down a little, but that's to be expected this time of year; especially if and when all this cool, wet weather goes away and more people can get in the fields. The Riding Horse Auction on Friday was a hit. We had a nice crowd and a good set of horses that sold well. The Driving Horse Auction on Saturday was a good one as well. April is a tough month for our regular Driving Horse Sale because of all the special sales in the spring. In the past, we've struggled for numbers and the market has been a little softer overall. But that was not the case on Saturday. We are looking forward to the Dutch Cross Classic this weekend and have a great lineup of horses to sell Saturday following our Stallion Presentation and Preview on Friday afternoon. Don't miss the fun planned with giveaways, demonstrations and an impressive Stallion line-up. See you at TLA!
