From the Editor

Hello folks,
 Sorry, time has gotten away from me again. We have several members to keep in our thoughts and prayers that have lost loved ones recently. For those of you that remember long time member, and my uncle, Tom Mays, his son in law Steve Terry passed away unexpectedly from a stroke last month. Please keep Pam and Valyne in your prayers as well. Also please keep Raymond Paul in your prayers as he awaits a lung transplant.

The good news is it is almost Fair time. Get your registrations in and we will see you Saturday

Heart of Georgia Corvair August 10, Meeting.

We will meet at Joe’s hanger where we do the Bar-b-que dinner for the Fair event. Will start at our regular time around 12:00 noon. We will be having a “Low Country Boil”. It is important to have a head Count by Monday August 5. Club is furnishing the food. We could use a couple of desserts. We will have water, tea and lemonade to drink. If you want something else, you may bring it. If you no not want “Low Country Boil”, please let me know and we will get some bar-b-que. We will also have an important business meeting.

We would like anyone from Corvair Atlanta and Vulcan Clubs if they would like to attend and any other friends.

Please RSVP to Lillian Law by August 5.

Please keep these Corvair Family members in your prayers.

Billy Bruce, Billy Price, Mike Gassmann and Anne Grant all lost family members.

These members are facing health issues.

Frank Metasavage eye problems,

Russ Thuleen is having Heart By-pass surgery,

Keith Burkingstock had a lung collapse, surgery to repair Aug. 2,

Wendy Price on going health issues.

Raymond Paul as he awaits new lungs

*Fair time is almost here, I need your registrations. Maybe bring to August meeting. We will follow our usual format. Joe Gleaton’s son will cook bar-b-que again. Hope to see you at August meeting. Do not forget September meeting will be at Mike & Dee Dee Gassmann’s. Drive your Corvair and participate in the Cruise-in after the meeting.

We are starting a new drive to collect Tee Shirts for another Quilt. If you have shirts that have Shrunk or that you are willing to donate, Please bring to next event.

From the White House- Well I lived in a white house.....

Good grief ! Its August already. Time marches on. The CORSA International Convention in St. Charles, Illinois is now history. Heart of Georgia members attending the convention were Billy and Eleanor Bruce, Mike and DeeDee Gassmann, Chris and Joan Law, Lillian Law, Shirley Smith, and myself. It was a very long trip, but we broke it up into three days, so it wasn't too bad.

On Sunday, we made a slight detour, and visited the National Chevrolet Museum, located in Decatur, Illinois. There is a separate room in the museum that belongs to the Corvair Preservation Foundation, and this is where 15-20 pristine examples of our favorite cars, along with many Corvair artifacts, are on display. From what I understand, the cars are switched out periodically, so the same ones are not there all of the time.

Monday afternoon, we arrived at the host hotel in St. Charles. The convention itself didn't start until Tuesday, so we pretty much just tried to wash off the road grime and catch up on some rest. Those who were participating in the concours spent Tuesday getting their Corvairs ready for the judging on Wednesday. There were 45 cars in the concours, including the Gassmann's very rare 1965 8-door Greenbrier, the Law's 1963 Rampside, and the Bruce's 1961 Lakewood. And guess what? All three of them brought home a silver award! Great job, and congratulations!

Please note that the August meeting will be at Joe Gleaton's airplane hangar, near Bonaire, the same location where we have the banquet after 'Vairs at the Fair. We are going to have real treat in store for us; Lonnie Lewis is going to prepare a "Low Country Boil". There is information elsewhere in this newsletter, letting you know about contacting Lillian, to get a number on how many plan to attend. Also, there will be BBQ available, for anyone who wishes to have that instead. PLEASE, get in touch with Lillian no later than Monday, August 5th, to let her know that you are attending, and which meal you prefer.

Hope to see everyone at the meeting.

Trivia will return next month, did not have the time to do my research!
