

42nd Street Revue

Old Broadway always works...Whether you bring in one phantom to sing “Music of the Night” or an entire Broadway revue...this show will dazzle your guests. You’ll get your money’s worth with this theme. Decor is a cinch...and the glittering marquees can be customized to your event. A sparkling New York skyline or fiber optic curtain works fine here...How about some great deli from one of your favorite restaurants? “Greased Lightning” anybody?
