

ANDREW A. BARABAS

1910 - 1992

Andrew A. Barabas, 82 of Vassar, formerly of Pigeon, passed away Tuesday, Nov. 24 at his home.

Mr. Barabas, a long-time Vassar barber and former City Council member, was born in Ohio and grew up in Pigeon, working as a barber in Pigeon and Caseville. He moved to Vassar in 1935 and opened his barber shop, staying in business for 50 years. He served on the Council and the City Planning Commission and with with the Vassar All-Sports Association. He was also a Little League coach.

He is survived by his wife, the former Myrna Zwerk; a daughter, Ellen Johnsey of Rockville, MD; two grandchildren; three sisters, Mary Bursick of Imlay City, Helen Schledjeski and Margaret Buchholz, both of Pigeon.

The Rev. Richard Szafranski celebrated a Funeral Mass on Saturday, Nov. 28 at St. Francis X. Cabrini Catholic Church, with burial in Riverside Cemetery.