

November 8, 2010. At that hearing, parties objecting to the application shall be required to identify particular time entries which they believe to be inappropriate or excessive.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver and his counsel shall be entitled to be paid for his services from the funds held by him. The Receiver shall charge an hourly rate of $320.00 plus reasonable expenses. For services provided after July 30, 2010, Receiver's counsel, K&L Gates, LLP, shall discount its rates by 9.5% from its then current hourly rates in effect as of the time services are rendered. The Receiver and his counsel shall submit to the Court and the parties of record their request for payment on behalf of himself and his counsel. If no party of record files an objection to the request for payment within ten days from the filing of the request for payment, then the Receiver shall pay the amount of the request from funds he holds in the receivership estate. Any objection must state with specificity the particular items of the Receiver's request to which the objection is made. If an objection is made, the Receiver shall not pay the contested portion of the invoice until a hearing has been held on the objection, but the Receiver may pay the portions of the request to which no objection is made.

SIGNED this 21st day of October 2010.
