

Sally McElroy is a retired music teacher and elementary principal. She currently works part-time as a Professional Development consultant. She has performed as oboist/English horn with the Eastern Music Festival, New Hampshire Music Festival, Alabama Symphony, and in Sibiu, Romania. She has visited Romania 7 times and has developed a love for the country and the friends she has met there.