

Morse, James R.

James Richard Morse, 77, of Tucson, Arizona, passed away Thursday, June 23, 2005, at the TMC Hospice in Tucson, Arizona. He was born May 8, 1928, along with a twin brother, in Rahway, New Jersey to Robert E. and Wanda (Baur) Morse. Jim earned his bachelor of science degree in pharmacy at the University of Michigan in 1950 and his master of science degree in hospital pharmacy at the University of Arizona in 1975. He went on to educate several new generations of pharmacists during his 26 years of teaching at the University of Arizona College of Pharmacy, where he was honored as Educator of the Year in 1986. In retirement, he continued to contribute to his field producing a number of monographs on compounding while volunteering for the USP. Leaving behind many relations, friends and colleagues, he will be fondly missed by his wife of 25 years, Jocelyn; his twin, Bob and his wife, Noreen; daughter, Corinne Morse Beeman and her husband, David; sister, Eleanor Todd; long-time buddy, Frank Kelly and his wife, Pauline, of Bay Port; forever school friend, Fran Winiecke, of Kearny, Arizona. Preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Wanda, well-known piano and voice teacher; his sisters, Corinne Baur Morse, Joanne Gault and Phyllis Bolton. Funeral services were conducted at St. Michael and All Angels Church in Tucson, Arizona on July 2, 2005. This very gifted man will long be remembered by all who knew him for his kindness, his humor and quick wit, and for his many contributions to society.
