

Advertising in the Prelude

Each month the Long Island Council of Churches e-mails approximately 2600 copies of our newsletter the Prelude to the religious leaders of 1600 faith organizations. Filled with timely articles, news briefs, updates and notices affecting Long Island's communities and churches and the wider world, the Prelude is a must read for all who would work together to improve Long Island and promote interfaith understanding and cooperation. The Long Island Council of Churches accepts paid sponsorship ads, display ads and simple listings (classifieds). Advertising in The Prelude is a great way to reach religious leaders and volunteers in Long Island's congregations and parishes.

To receive a media kit with advertising rates, copy requirements, and copy deadlines, please see the Media Kit, or call 516-565-0290, or email LICC@optonline.net. Congregations that join the LICC and groups that join the Friends of the LICC receive a free classified ad in thanks for paying their annual dues.
