

1/14/2019

Deputy Ridley received a call from a female stating her son was not being treated properly at a local medical facility. Deputy Weekley spoke with the female. After discovering that there was no abuse, and it was her opinion she was advised to contact an attorney.

Deputy Weekley and Deputy Ridley responded to a Domestic in the Sardis area. After the investigation, it was discovered that it was over a custody disagreement. The children were returned to their mother, and both parties were separated.

Deputy Ridley and K-9 Ax responded to a male that advised he was using Meth and had not slept for days, in the Graysville area. He advised he was hallucinating and was also hearing voices. The male was sent to the hospital for an examination. After a consent to search the residence, no other narcotics were located in the residence. No further action was needed.

Deputy Ridley responded to Ozark in reference to a car vs. deer accident. The caller had left the scene and the deer was not located. No report needed.

Sgt. Yonley assisted Valley Towing in reference to a vehicle over an embankment on State Route 7 in Lee Township. The vehicle was recovered from the scene and it had to be towed away.

1/15/2019

Deputy Weekley responded to the Beallsville area in reference to alleged threats being made. After investigating the complaint, the alleged victims advised that they did not want to pursue any criminal charges. No further action was needed.

Deputy Ridley and Deputy Weekey responded to a complaint in the Graysville area. The complainant stated that Jeff Howell was in her residence and refused to leave. He also had made threats to do serious harm to her and himself. After investigating that complaint, Jeff was taken into custody and transported to the Monroe County Jail. He is being charged with aggravated menacing, criminal trespassing, and disorderly conduct.

Deputy Copley investigated a suspicious vehicle called in by the Par Mar in Hannibal. While enroute to the call, the Sheriff's Office was advised the vehicle left in an unknown direction of travel.

Sgt. Yonley and Deputy Copley assisted the Woodsfield Police Department with a subject trying to break into vehicles on West Marietta Street. The subject was severely intoxicated. He was transported to the Monroe County Jail.

Deputy Copley investigated a complaint of animal cruelty in Stafford. Investigation is pending.

1/16/2019

Sgt. Smith investigated a crash on County Road 2 in Seneca Township. A crash report was taken for a truck that ran off the road striking an embankment.

Deputy Schuerman assisted a motorist in Sunbury Township along State Route 145 that became stuck in the snow. The car was removed by a wrecker.

Deputy Schuerman investigated a concerned homeowner in Center Township after they found footprints in the snow by their house. The investigation revealed a nearby motorist became stuck in the snow and was looking for help.

Deputy Blamble investigated a home alarm in Bethel Township. The alarm was found to be false.

1/17/2019

Deputy Barton responded to Bolts Hill Road in reference a male alleged threatening a female. Leann Baldridge advised no threats were made, but she wanted her boyfriend Michael Blackstone arrested for trespassing. Deputy Barton determined that Michael had lived at the residence for approximately 5 years and there was no legal reason he could not be at the residence.

Sgt. Warner and Deputy Barton conducted a traffic stop in Woodsfield and arrested Phillip Tanner.

All road units assisted the SRT and Detectives with a search warrant on Plainview Road. Vickie Bledsoe was arrested and transported to the Monroe County Jail.

1/18/2019

Deputy Weekley responded to a two-vehicle accident near Stafford. The vehicles were able to be driven from the scene. A crash report will be completed.

Deputy Ridley responded to an alarm drop in Lee Township. The alarm turned out to be false.

Deputy Ridley responded to a theft in Salem Township. Investigation pending.

Sgt. Yonley, Deputy Ridley an Officer Stephens from the Woodsfield PD arrested two subjects on Grand Jury indictments from Monroe County Common Pleas Court. The subjects were transported to the Monroe County Jail.

1/19/2019

Deputy Weekley was dispatched to a rock slide on State Route 255. ODOT was notified and cleared the roadway.

Deputy Ridley and K-9 Ax assisted Patrolman Black from the Woodsfield PD with a report of a stolen vehicle. The vehicle was found on Moose Ridge Road just outside of Woodsfield.

Deputy Ridley and K-9 Ax was dispatched to Straightfork Road near Graysville in reference to a shooting complaint. The investigation determined a subject was shooting a rifle across the roadway and struck a power line causing locals to lose power. Information was obtained for a report and the gun was taken as evidence in the case. The case will be forwarded to the Monroe County Prosecutors Office.

Deputy Weekley was dispatched to Jerusalem in reference to a prowler call. No subject was found on or near the property. The case is under investigation.

Deputy Copley and K-9 Sakura initiated a traffic stop on a silver Chevy Impala for defective equipment. The vehicle was occupied by a male driver and a female passenger. K-9 Sakura made a positive indication on the front passenger side of the vehicle. While Deputy Copley was getting the female out of the vehicle and a baggie containing methamphetamines fell from her person. Charges are pending. The male was cited for DUS, Fictitious and Expired Plates. The female to the hospital for unrelated reasons.

Deputy Copley was dispatched to Malaga in reference to a cow in the roadway. The cow was unable to be located.

Deputy Copley was advised by Patrolman Stephens that there was a car pulled off the road on Moose Ridge Road with the driver slumped over. K-9 Sakura made a positive indication and methamphetamines were recovered. The male was then transported to the Monroe County Jail.

Deputy Galloway was dispatched to Beallsville in reference to an alarm drop. The alarm company called back and advised that it was a false alarm.

1/20/2019

Sgt. Yonley investigated an assault in Duffy. After the investigation the suspect Carl Snodgrass was found at the Par Mar in Hannibal and was taken into custody. Carl was transported to the Monroe County Jail and charged with Assault.