The Marketplace

The Marketplace is Franklin County's largest consignment twice-a-year event. We have served our area friends and neighbors for 20 years. The sale offers the opportunity to participate as consignors, shoppers, helpers, or all three. Consignors prepare their items and price them for sale. Shoppers select from thousands of items. And volunteers help with various aspects of running the sale, from event set-up to clothing screening to check-out to event breakdown. The Marketplace only accepts the highest quality of gently-used items, so shoppers know they're getting the best values. Marketplace participants can feel good knowing that the sale benefits, in part, local charities that receive merchandise donated by consignors. The Marketplace strives to help all involved while meeting community needs in the process.
