Event Details:

June 10th Summer Reading Begins: Don't worry parents, we are here to help you combat the "Summer Slide" and keep your kiddos entertained while they are out for summer. This summer's events and activities are out of this world. Come see us to sign up and get summer reading ready.

June 11th Cook Book Club 5:30: Enjoy a picnic dinner at the park. Bring a picnic style dish to pass if you wish to participate. Hot Dogs and condiments will be provided by club members.

June 16th Happy Father's Day to all the amazing dads out there! Hope you have a "grill" good time!

June 14th Flag Day: We celebrate the adoption of the flag of the United States of America

June 18th Kids Paint Night (you must sign up for this event) 6pm – 8pm: Our friend Becky will be here to put on an instructional paint night for the kids. The cost is $10/person. We will provide snacks and drinks. Please arrive 10-15 minutes early to pay and get set up. Paint night averages about 1.5 -2 hours long. Parents are welcome to stay at the library or go enjoy a quick bite to eat.

June 24th – July 2nd the Escape Room will be open (you MUST sign up): Get the Hubble Back! The Hubble has been hacked! NASA lost control of the famed space telescope through some insidious computer piracy, and the perpetrator has hidden the means to regain control in a small box, along with a series of clues to open the multiple locks. Can your group of young astronomers figure out the codes, unlock the box, and help NASA utilize Hubble again to explore the galaxies?

June 25th Adult Book Club at 5:30: Book Club will be discussing "Lilac Girls" by Martha Kelly

June 27th Family Movie Night 5:30: Movie – How to Train Your Dragon: The Hidden World Rating – PG Runtime – 1h 44m
