

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

It was positively wonderful to see all of you at our May meeting, either in person or Zoom. Our speaker was a real addition to our first meeting, lecturing, sharing her patterns and quilts with excitement that just bubbled over. Just what we needed. Thank you, Kirsten for that.

The winner of our first Fat Quarter Raffle was new member, Leslie Fellion. Monthly raffles will be a mainstay through the end of the year. Tickets are $1 or six for $5. This is an opportunity for us all to make a small contribution to the guild and win three fat quarters of seasonal fabric. The first raffle earned the guild $34. Not having quilt show revenues makes the budget tight. Every little bit helps.

We are still in need of a VP of Planning and Hospitality Co-Chair. September is on the horizon at which time we will be recruiting you for retiring board member positions.

Until next month.....Quilting is not about being better than someone else; it's about being better than you used to be. --Anonymous

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Guild Meeting

May 23, 2022

Hybrid Meeting

Sixty-two guild members attended the May meeting (22 on zoom and 40 in-person—for the first time in 2 years!!!!). Rebecca Lidstrom from Studio R Quilts in Madison came to the Guild meeting and offered her creative ideas for making secondary designs from one or two-block patterns. Rebecca showed a number of her quilts in a trunk show.

Rebecca's patterns can be purchased on her website.

At the business meeting it was announced that the June meeting will again be offered in-person and on zoom. Most members who were surveyed feel that snacks should not be provided at this time.

Have I got a show for you!!!

Mary Wolter is training to become a certified quilt show judge which involves taking a training class, observing the judging at several local and regional shows, performing the judging at a show, taking a written exam, and completing a mock judging before a panel of other certified judges. In order to fulfill the requirement of judging a show, LHQ is providing the venue and asking some of our enthusiastic quilters to be contestants.

Please consider entering some quilts into this special quilt show. There is a category for first time show entrants – so this is an opportunity for those who have never entered in a show before to give it a try! Don't be shy! Mary will be performing the judging at the July meeting/runnagage sale, so you may observe the judging and you can take your items home the same day. There will be ribbons for the winners! No prize money, but you will have bragging rights!

Please note that there is a separate class for charity quilts. Hopefully you have worked on a few during the quarantine and our in-person meeting hiatus and would consider entering one in this class for some special recognition. We hope to see lots of entries in this special category.

Complete Show Rules follow on page 7.
