

TYPES OF CHRONOLOGY TEMPLATES

TYPE ONE: Paper Orientation: Landscape.

Date	Action / Event	Source of Information	Page (s)	Action by/ Designation	Details
12/01/2014	Consultation - GP	South Road Surgery	234	Dr Template, GP	HX: Given by mother. 3 days of vomiting. After every feed. Has noticed occasional twitching. Believes child is having seizures. Has happened 2 times. Resolving within 1 minute. No blue episodes. Passing urine. O/E: No signs of dehydration. Wet nappy in situ. Alert, happy child, playing. Apyrexial. No murmur. No concerns on full examination. Weight gain along centile acceptable. Reflexes normal. No nystagmus. Fontanelle soft. No evidence of neurological compromise. Imp: Possible Reflux. Plan: Ensure fluid intake. Infant Gaviscon prescribed. Try to capture twitching episodes with mobile phone camera. To review in 1 week or earlier if concerned. If any "blue" episodes or prolonged twitching (over 1 minute) to seek assistance at A&E.

TYPE TWO Paper Orientation: Landscape

Date	Source of Information	Page (s)	Event / Detail	Comments
12/01/2014	South Road Surgery	234	To GP – Consultation: HX: Given by mother. 3 days of vomiting. After every feed. Has noticed occasional twitching. Believes child is having seizures. Has happened 2 times. Resolving within 1 minute. No blue episodes. Passing urine. O/E: No signs of dehydration. Wet nappy in situ. Alert, happy child, playing. Apyrexial. No murmur. No concerns on full examination. Weight gain along centile acceptable. Reflexes normal. No nystagmus. Fontanelle soft. No evidence of neurological compromise. Imp: Possible Reflux. Plan: Ensure fluid intake. Infant Gaviscon prescribed. Try to capture twitching episodes with mobile phone camera. To review in 1 week or earlier if concerned. If any "blue" episodes or prolonged twitching (over 1 minute) to seek assistance at A&E. Clinician: Dr Template, GP.	First presentation at GP with symptoms associated with seizures. Repeat attendance with vomiting. 1st request to mother to video the episodes.

TYPES OF CHRONOLOGY TEMPLATES

TYPE THREE Paper Orientation: Portrait

Date	Page (s)	Event / Detail / Location	Comments
12/01/2014	234	To GP – Consultation: HX: Given by mother. 3 days of vomiting. After every feed. Has noticed occasional twitching. Believes child is having seizures. Has happened 2 times. Resolving within 1 minute. No blue episodes. Passing urine. O/E: No signs of dehydration. Wet nappy in situ. Alert, happy child, playing. Apyrexial. No murmur. No concerns on full examination. Weight gain along centile acceptable. Reflexes normal. No nystagmus. Fontanelle soft. No evidence of neurological compromise. Imp: Possible Reflux. Plan: Ensure fluid intake. Infant Gaviscon prescribed. Try to capture twitching episodes with mobile phone camera. To review in 1 week or earlier if concerned. If any “blue” episodes and/or prolonged twitching (over 1 minute) to seek assistance at A&E. Clinician: Dr Template, GP.	First presentation at GP with symptoms associated with seizures. Repeat attendance with vomiting. 1st request to mother to video the episodes

TYPE FOUR Paper Orientation: Portrait

Date	Source of Information	Page (s)	Event / Detail / Location	Comments
12/01/2014	South Road Surgery	234	HX: Given by mother. 3 days of vomiting. After every feed. Has noticed occasional twitching. Believes child is having seizures. Has happened 2 times. Resolving within 1 minute. No blue episodes. Passing urine. O/E: No signs of dehydration. Wet nappy in situ. Alert, happy child, playing. Apyrexial. No murmur. No concerns on full examination. Weight gain along centile acceptable. Reflexes normal. No nystagmus. Fontanelle soft. No evidence of neurological compromise. Imp: Possible Reflux. Plan: Ensure fluid intake. Infant Gaviscon prescribed. Try to capture twitching episodes with mobile phone camera. To review in 1 week or earlier if concerned. If any “blue” episodes or prolonged twitching (over 1 minute) to seek assistance at A&E. Clinician: Dr Template, GP.	First presentation at GP with symptoms associated with seizures. Repeat attendance with vomiting. 1st request to mother to video the episodes