

RULES AND REGULATIONS

NOTE: PLEASE READ CAREFULLY AND REFER TO THE HOME PAGE FOR THE CURRENT YEAR'S DATES

The Rules and Regulations will refer to specific days of fair week rather than dates.

1. The Exhibition will be open to the public at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday of fair week.
2. During fair week, the grounds and buildings will be open to exhibitors on Tuesday between 9:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., and on Wednesday between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. for placement of exhibits in "Sections 11, 31 – 49" inclusive.
3. Judging of exhibits in Sections 11, 31 – 49 will commenced at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday. Public and exhibitors not allowed in exhibition buildings during judging.
4. Intending exhibitors must be residents in Queens, Kings, Sunbury, Saint John and York Counties in New Brunswick unless specified otherwise.
5. Entries should be made on the printed forms supplied by management, or downloaded from www.queenscountyfair.com Entry Forms tab. These forms must be filled in and signed by the exhibitor and sent or delivered to the Secretary, Queens County Fair, 20 Court House Road, Gagetown, Queens County, N.B. E5M 1E4, no later than 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday of fair week, except for livestock entries, see Rule 29.
6. Exhibitors must be the owners of the animals or articles which they exhibit.
7. After entering, exhibits will be supplied with a tag, specifying the section, class and entry number. This tag must remain attached to the animal or article during the exhibition.
8. All purebred animals must be registered and the registration number given on the entry form. Registration papers must be produced for the Secretary or Judge, if required.
9. All fruits, roots, grains, vegetables and poultry, etc., must be grown by the exhibitor.
10. The decision of the Judge shall be final as to the respective merit of any exhibit, and shall be at liberty to withhold any premium in any department, if they consider that any animal or article is not of sufficient merit.
11. Exhibitors wishing to sell an article may attach a price tag.
12. Exhibitors are requested to arrange their exhibits in as neat and attractive manner as possible.
13. Safety of Exhibits: The Association will take reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of articles sent or brought to the exhibition, yet it must be distinctly understood that the owners themselves must assume all risk. Should any article be accidentally injured, lost or stolen, while the Association will give all the assistance in its power towards the recovery of the same, it will not make any payments for the value thereof.

14. Exhibitors will not be allowed the custody of any animal or article exhibited, after being placed in position assigned by the officers, nor to remove or interfere with it in any way, except under their direction until the close of the show, nor will they be allowed to be present nor to interfere with the judges in any way, while they are occupied with the judging of said exhibits.

15. All exhibits of livestock, fruits, vegetables, flowers, household arts, 4-H exhibits, art and photography will be required to remain on the fairgrounds until 5:00 p.m. on the Sunday. Failure to do so will be forfeiture of all prize money obtained and expulsion of exhibiting for a period of one year.

16. The judges are requested to make at the end of their book, before handing it in at the Secretary's Office, any suggestions they may deem necessary for consideration by the Association with a view to improving the Prize List for future exhibitions.

17. All charges for space privileges and concessions must be paid for at the opening of the Exhibition and must not be removed until a release slip has been secured from the Secretary. Exhibitors must take charge of their exhibits at the end of the fair.

18. Exhibitors shall, if required, make a statutory declaration that the articles are exhibited in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Association, and in case any exhibitor refuses to make such declaration on being requested, all premiums awarded shall be forfeited. Any article or fixture left in the buildings or on the grounds at the close of the Exhibition will be entirely at the owner's risk.

19. Exhibitors of animals, machinery in motion or other exhibits liable to cause injury or damage to persons coming in contact with them, shall guard their exhibits to protect the public from injury.

20. Should a situation arise where an unruly or unmanageable animal(s) could be a danger to the patrons of the fair, the chairperson together with his or her committee has the authority to ask exhibitor of said animal(s) to remove said animal(s) from premises. This authority is supported by the fair executive and board of directors.

21. This Association will not hold itself responsible for any printer's or other possible errors in the Prize List. Such errors will be ruled by the context should they occur.

22. All protests must be in writing and given to the Secretary within two (2) hours of the cause of protest. The complaint must be plainly stated and must be accompanied by a deposit of $20.00 which same will be forfeited to the Association if the said protest is not sustained.
