Commodore's Report

Happy Soggy Spring!

Here we are coming up to our boating season with lots of cruises planned. So I encourage all boaters and social members to take a look at your cruise schedules and hopefully we will be able to see you at one of our functions. Just an FYI... we have 1 more meeting (May) at the Masonic Hall then the boating season begins and return in September.

I'm sorry to say that I will not be there for the meeting this month but I leave it in great hands with Mike Leisure. He will be running the meeting. The doors are open at 6pm at the Masonic Hall in West Seattle. Tentatively Jeff Freeman will be demonstrating the use of our AED that will be on our cruises.

I've responded to the Auxiliary Coast Guard regarding their interest to adding our club to their yearly vessel inspections. I have suggested our Seafood Feed in June at Des Moines to catch a few of us at that time for inspections for those who haven't had it done.

This April's club dinner/mtg will be hosted by Lenore Freeman making a special Mexican dinner for Cinco de Mayo (a couple weeks early). Dinner will be served between 7 – 7:30.

Mary Ann has started working on the yearbook and is asking all our members to make sure all your information is correct. If not, please email us with the revised info (lobdell20@aol.com). I apologize for any inconvenience that this may have presented itself.

Thank you,
Your Commodore, WSYC
Don Lobdell

Happy Birthday

Ahoy Mattie's

Hope everyone is getting ready for another fun summer of boating and good time.

The Doe Run and the Stagg Cruise are coming up, right around the corner.(April 28th-30th)
Guys be sure and get a hold of Rod and let him know who will be attending, so he can plan accordingly.

April's dinner at the Hall will be sponsored by Lenore and Jeff Freeman. They are cooking up some delicious Mexican food in celebration on Cinco De Mayo. (Cant wait)

Oh, but keep your pants on! May is right around the corner with opening day of boating season. Lori and I are planning on attending for our 1st time ever and look forward to a great time.

Don't forget to get some raffle tickets for the big screen color TV. We hope to pick the lucky winner at the Seafood Cruise in June at Des Moines.

Looking forward to seeing you all on the 21st of April, and wish everyone a Happy Easter.

Yours truly
Mike LeSieur

April 28th-30th - Doe Run - Our next exciting cruise will be for the Ladies - we will be taking the Clipper ferry from Seattle to Victoria B.C. - Need to be at the Pier 69 at 7:00am Friday or Saturday morning.

Bring your Tiara's ladies and be a fashion statement ;)

We will be staying at the beautiful Inn at Laurel Point. Plan to check out the sites, shop and have a fun girl's weekend! Friday will be a open day for the ladies, maybe checkout the Butchart gardens on a bus - good way to see the town, have happy hour in one of the rooms (Maybe mine, Doreen) have some snacks and drinks. Saturday the rest of the ladies will be coming so we can hang out and plan some fun things to do - lets do dinner Saturday night with the group - not sure the place yet - but it would be fun to maybe listen to some music and do some dancing! Then Sunday have breakfast at 9-10:00am in the hotel, check out is at 11:00am. then we have to be ready no later than 5:00pm, to check-in for our return trip back to Seattle at Belleville terminal.

 PLEASE REMEMBER YOU NEED A PASSPORT OR ENHANCE LICENSE FOR THIS TRIP *****

April 28th-30th - Stag cruise for the guys - will be the same weekend at the secret location (Port Orchard) time to check out our boats and do a shakedown cruise. Chili cook-off under the activities shelter, Costco dogs to go with it and of course the cruise bar. We have the slips nearest the activity shelter reserved for us. While Moon Dogs has shut down there are a couple of good Sports bars just up town a ways Is the Blue Goose Sports Bar. It is 0.6 miles from the marina. Going up may take 13 minutes, coming back who knows. Friday will be open to check out the town and renew old friendships. Saturday we will have the cruise bar and chili contest. so if you have not signup yet, make sure you let Rod Rupprecht know, that way he can have a good head count, sounds like a good weekend for the WSYC guys!

May 3rd-7th, will be our opening day of boating – hosted by the Schrader's, So make sure you mark your calendar for this cruise. More will be forth coming. This is a great event and much easier to attend than most think. Feel free to ask me or Rod or Bob about it! we are planning to starting lunch noon at Ivar's on Wednesday, so we can get tied up I.and get our space earlier on the cut. then have Wed night pupus, Thursday night bob/Linda are providing meats and salad.(bring side dish and/or dessert) Friday dinner at QCYC BBQ and Saturday - Pizzas?/leftovers/party stuff to be provided on your boat by you for your guests. Sunday head on home.

May 26th-29th, will be our Memorial Day cruise at Kingston - Here is the latest from the Port: Currently we have our group located at the end of the guest dock from 36 to 49. Each member is welcome to begin reserving their slip now, however, please be aware, that this could still change as we get closer to the time frame, and the Port may still be reconstructing our covered moorage. We will strongly endeavor to find slips for you, but we cannot guarantee which slips. Also I asked about the picnic covered gazebos along the guest docks, these cant not be reserve, but we can make sure once we arrive to put our WEST SEATTLE YACHT CLUB sign up, that way we make sure that area is saved for our weekend. also remember the farmers market on Saturday ;) mostly likely we will have happy hours on the dock -Friday-night dinner will be at the Kingston Yacht Club bring meat for you to BBQ and a side dish to share Saturday - Linda/bob will provide dinner meats and salad (bring side dish or dessert). Sunday - Kingston Ale House - bob made reservation for 16 so far. then Monday memorial day pot luck breakfast 9am and then do a memorial service, so bring flowers if you can, thanks. PLEASE CALL - Chrystal Kott - to reserve your slips for the Memorial Day cruise Port of Kingston 360.297.3545.

June 9th-11th - Seafood Feed - will be at Des Monies - we have 12 slips for this cruise - please let me know if you are coming - i will be making the reservation for the club. the reservation fee is $5.00 per boat which is not due until 30 days before this cruise and it will be a one time payment made by WSYC..Don will have the coast guard auxiliary do a boat inspection at this cruise, so that will be great!

Thanks for everyone's help - I do appreciate it all - WSYC Rear Commodore, Doreen Rupprecht ;)

WSYC Golf Tournament – June 3, 2017

The West Seattle Yacht Club Annual Golf Tournament is set for Saturday, June 3, 2017. Foster Golf Links in Tukwila is again the site of the tournament now in its 11th year. We're gearing up for 10 teams with the first T-Time at 10:00am. The entry fee will be the same as the last few years at $65 per person which includes green fees and golf cart.

See the attached entry form for additional information. The patio (if the weather permits) has been reserved for our 19th Hole awards presentation at the on-site Billy Baroo's Restaurant. We encourage and invite all of our West Seattle Yacht Club Members who are not participating in the golf tournament to come and enjoy the camaraderie after the Tournament.

The time should be around 3:30- 4:00pm as the first teams come off the course. Food and drink will be available off the menu for all.

Please see the attached entry form. Though we do have a May 27th entry deadline, please send your team line up as early as possible to aid in the planning of the event. The entry fees may be made the day of the event – more importantly right now is the team commitments. It is not required for you to have a team to participate for we do have singles and pairs committed that we can combine to make up teams. Just let us know. So keep June 3rd in mind for another Legendary West Seattle Yacht Club Day of Golf.

Respectfully,
Don Lobdell & Robert Selk

Happy Spring to All!

A quick update for the TV raffle. We are 2/3 of the way to our goal for ticket sales. About 1/3 of the club membership has participated thus far in the raffle and our members account for about 2/3's of the total ticket sales. Many thanks to the members, who have both participated and have brought guests to our gatherings, who have also joined in to support the club. There is a high correlation between the two groups (something like 100%)!

If you haven't had a chance to grab a ticket or five for the raffle yet, please consider doing so over the course of the next couple of meetings and gatherings. If we can just get another third of the membership to "take a chance" on this, we'll hit our goal. Thanks to all those who participate. Remember, it's your club!
