

FRIDAY NIGHT FRIENDS JANUARY, 2019 NEWSLETTER

Please note that we will not have a FNF event in February. CSBC had a prior commitment in place before we made our season schedule. We will be back in March on the 4th Friday (22nd) of the month.

Many thanks to the Hayes and Childers families for their donations to our program; every donation goes directly to our participants for craft purchases, games or other supplies. We are always grateful for these generous gestures.

Reminder – please remember to frequently check our website www.fnfroanoke.org (especially in the winter) as Todd is great about posting last minute info, including weather closings. Also look online at WDBJ 7's weather info link as we post there as well.

We've welcomed several new participants faces since September, 2018 and are always happy to meet more. So, please spread the word about our FNF ministry and what it means to you and your family. Please encourage others join us so that they too can benefit from our ministry.

We look forward to seeing you at our MARCH event. Mark your calendar for March 22nd (it's not the last Friday this time, we have five Friday's in March).
