Except as is otherwise provided below, and except upon a transfer of title to a Public Trustee or to the first mortgagee, each Owner of a Unit, upon transferring or conveying his interest, shall incorporate in such instrument of conveyance an agreement that the grantee carry out the provisions of this Article III.

In the event of any default on the part of any Owner under any first mortgage which entitled the holder thereof to foreclose same, any sale under such foreclosure, including delivery of a deed to the first mortgage in lieu of such foreclosure, shall be made free and clear of the provisions of this Declaration, and the purchaser (or grantee under such deed in lieu of foreclosure) of the Unit shall be thereupon and thereafter be subject to the provisions of this Declaration. If the purchaser following such foreclosure sale (or grantee under deed given in lieu of such foreclosure) shall be the then holder of the first mortgage, or its nominee, the said holder or nominee may thereafter sell and convey the Unit free and clear of the provisions of this Declaration, but its grantee shall thereupon and thereafter be subject to all of the provisions hereof.

The liability of the Owner under these covenants shall continue, notwithstanding the fact that he may have leased said interest as provided herein.

In the event any Owner shall attempt to lease the Unit without obtaining the consent of the Association, such lease shall be wholly null and void and shall confer no interest whatsoever upon the intended lessee.

Possession of or residence in the Unit by any other person than the Owner, his lineal ascendants or descendants or lineal descendant or ascendant relatives, continuing for a period of ten (10) days, shall be deemed, for this purpose, to constitute a leasing of the Unit, whether or not any consideration has been paid therefor; and in such event, the Board may require the removal of such occupant(s), it being hereby agreed that the Board, in the event of repossession of the Unit by such unrelated persons, shall be entitled to the possession of said Unit upon demand therefor of and from such occupant, with or without notice to the Owner thereof; and in the event of failure to surrender such possession, the Board may institute its action in statutory forcible entry and detainer proceedings for the possession of the Unit, and have and retain such possession until the Owner retakes physical possession of the Unit.

The Association shall also have the right to evict any occupant of the Unit through statutory forcible entry and detainer proceedings (without the joinder of the Owner) for any violation of the Prior Declaration, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations, or this Declaration and shall have possession until the Owner retakes physical possession of the Unit.
