Sunday Meditation

We're commanded to judge and not to judge: Jesus said, "Do not judge by appearances, but judge righteous judgment" (John 7:24). He also said, "Judge not lest you be judged..." (Matt. 7:1). There's no contradiction here. There are wrong kinds of judging and right kinds of judging. Of course Jesus wants us to make judgments. That's what it means to be wise—to make right judgments. Christians who publicly make a strong stand against sin, and correct sin in others, unless their own lives are blameless, are rightly called hypocrites; those who correct others should be above reproach. But it's neither hypocrisy nor judging to uphold God's standard of holiness before men, and to reprove sin, provided it's done in a loving manner. "Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted" (Gal. 6:1). All for Jesus, Richard

Starting in April! A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The Kingdom Kids room is located in the foyer, to the left, as you exit the doors. The green trees on the wall make it easy to find. This is for children who are too old for nursery, but have the wiggles during the sermon! Today's teacher is Erin Joyner and helper. If your child has an allergy, please let us know, as we sometimes serve a snack. Parent's; your children will return to their seats during the closing announcements by our elders. We pray that this time will be a blessing for you & your children at Newnan Church of Christ!

Groups are meeting around the area, look in the hallway for a list of host locations and meeting info. Get connected to a CORE!
