Prayers of the Faithful Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For the Spirit's guidance in every diocese in preparing for the Synod in 2023 and for the mission of the Church in the world. We pray:

For those who serve in public office; for countries recovering from natural disasters and civil unrest. We pray:

For those who work in hospitals, community health centers, and senior care homes, as they foster healing and hope for the people and communities they serve; and for the recovery of the sick. We pray:

For the rebirth of faith in our brothers and sisters ensnared in worldly pursuits. We pray:

For all people who suffer from hunger, loneliness, and pain; for those unemployed or facing layoffs. We pray:

For the spiritual and physical well-being of all parishioners; for those who have died recently, and for those who mourn and suffer loss of their loved one. We pray:

Prayer for the Synod This month there is a Synod beginning entitled "Synod 2021-2023 a Synodal Church - Communion/Participation/Mission". Below you will see the Prayer of the Synod: Adsumus Sancte Spiritus This prayer, attributed to St. Isidore of Seville (560-636), has been traditionally used at Councils and Synods for hundreds of years. The version below was specifically designed for the Church's Synodal journey from 2021 to 2023.

*We stand before you, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.*

People and Planet First

Together, let's act for the planet and its defenders!

Development and Peace's annual People and Planet First campaign is inspired by the words of Pope Francis, who says that "a true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor" (Laudato Si', 49).

These cries are too often silenced by powerful companies that plunder resources in countries of the Global South, without regard for people's fundamental human and environmental rights. Many such companies are Canadian.

Act to end their impunity now! Sign the petition asking the federal government to enact laws that will compel Canadian companies to conduct due diligence across their overseas operations and that will give the victims of their abuses access to justice in Canadian courts. Visit <https://devp.org/en>

Mondays @ The Movies Connecting faith to popular films, will meet again on November 29th at 10:30 am via Zoom when we will be discussing the 1947 version of Miracle on 34th Street. All participants will have watched the film prior to the session, register with Trevor or Karen at catechism.set@gmail.com or 387-4198. Register online by going to www.dimoncton.ca → Pastoral Offices → Youth Faith Development and click on the poster for Mondays @ The Movies.

Exploring our Faith

THE DEEP HEART'S CORE*

I wondered, 'How do the three Readings in today's liturgy relate to one another?' It is my gift to look for relationships, also a major flaw. I see connections but I cannot always make them visible to others. The reading from Jeremiah 31, from the Letter to the Hebrews and the Gospel of Mark, seemed quite random and unrelated to me. It is suggested that in our "Exploration" we leave the Gospel to the priest and concentrate on the other readings. Since the second reading from Hebrews is all about priesthood, I concentrated on Jeremiah.

I began by reviewing my old textbook, 'Understanding the Old Testament' by Bernard Anderson (1957). To get a context for our text, I read a bit of his history of the time. Biblical scholarship authenticates the historical accuracy of the Bible. One of its wonders is that we can today look over the shoulder of Jeremiah (back about 2700 years ago) and watch him buy a parcel of land and put away the deed for safekeeping. (Jer. 32). Jeremiah was in jail for treason when he did this, because he undermined the people's trust in the king. Jerusalem was surrounded by the Babylonian Army at the time and Jeremiah said they would not be saved. Judah would be carried off into Exile just as 'Ephraim' was before. The Northern Kingdom (Ephraim) was destroyed by the Assyrians. Now the same would happen to Judah.

And it will come about that as I have watched over them to pluck up, to break down, to overthrow, to destroy and to bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant. 'Behold the days are coming', says the Lord, 'when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, not like the covenant which I made with their fathers, but this is the covenant which I will make. I will put my law within them and on their heart I will write it, and I will be their God and they shall be my people.'

(Jeremiah 31:28, 31, 32)

The New Covenant would replace the old rituals from Abraham, and the Mosaic Law and would survive the Babylonian Exile.

At the Consecration of every Mass, we remember the words of Jesus on the night before he died., 'Take this all of you and drink it, for this is the Chalice of my Blood. The Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you.' St. Paul explains, 'Do you not know that we are baptized into his death?' - connecting baptism and the New Covenant with the death of Christ. Today's reading from Hebrews also connects baptism and the priesthood. At every Mass, we eat and drink the New Covenant, making it a part of ourselves. The old laws and rituals are constantly renewed by the New Covenant, written in the depths of our hearts, where faith lives.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY OCTOBER 24TH

At the initiative of Pope Pius XI in 1926, the second last Sunday during October became known as World Mission Sunday. Catholics throughout the world are invited to pray for and give to the missions. The collection this Sunday is organized by the Pontifical Missions Society. The funds collected assist some 1,250 mission dioceses under the responsibility of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples. As agreed by the Holy See and the Bishops of Canada, a portion of the Canadian contributions to this collection will continue to be used until 2020 to assist six dioceses in Northern Canada which for many years had also been under the jurisdiction of the Congregation.

Once again, Parishioners of Our Lady of Mercy have demonstrated their support for their Church. In our month end for September Financial Statements, all reflect a positive financial position. We have $112,693.00 in our Bank Account; a good measure of the health of the Parish. Year to Year comparison to the end of September compared to September 2020, revealed this year's Revenues totalled $13,720.25 compared to $4,835.00 a year ago and, finally our Profit & Loss Statement to the end of September compared to last years shows Revenue at $25,412.89 compared to a "deficit" position a year ago of ($787.95).
