~Letter from the Baroness~

Greetings Windhaven,

I have just returned to our Barony from the lands of Meridies and the Known World Heraldic and Scribal Symposium. While it was a bit of a whirlwind trip, it was definitely worth the hours of travel to attend the many classes offered there. While I have been the Northshield Kingdom Submissions Herald for over four years, there are still many things to learn about heraldry to improve my knowledge base and skills.

Next month Windhaven is holding a moot in Appleton at Alicia Park on July 29. This is a nice shady park for a July moot with a pavilion in case of rain. We will be finding unique ways to have fun at this moot, with bowling for beverages, gaming, and a fun twist to armored and rapier fighting (depending on what Lord Ed and HE Grimmund come up with). We will have a baronial court, so if you know of someone in the barony who is deserving of baronial recognition please send an email to HE Grimmund or me with an explanation of why they should get the award. A potluck feast will follow court.

July also holds WW, the annual event co-sponsored by the Baronies of Jararvellir and Nordskogen. This event is happening at the Whispering Pines Campground outside of Osseo, WI from July 13-16. It is a busy weekend of fighting, shopping, classes, bardic gatherings, socializing, and just about anything SCA that you can do in that amount of time. Information can be found at <https://warriorsandwarlords.org/> I heartily recommend attending if you can. While there, why not take a volunteer shift at gate, security, info point or one of the other volunteer opportunities on the website?

Information on the rest of July can be found on the Northshield Calendar at <http://www.northshield.org/Events/Default.aspx>

With that, I will wish you all a fair month of July and encourage you to enjoy the camping.

Blessings.

Mira
Baroness
