

THE ARTS IN DOWNTOWN ZANESVILLE

Join us for the February's First Friday ArtWalk, February 3rd from 5pm - 8pm.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH

Beverly Dunworth

“Umteen” years ago, I put away my oils and started painting in watercolor. I took various workshops to increase my skills and love of the medium. Like some people, life’s circumstances got in the way, and my art was put on hold. That is—until about 6 years ago when a friend and I were taking a walk and saw artists painting in watercolor. We sat down just to watch but found paints and watercolor paper right in front of us. I was nervous. Told the instructor that I had not painted in years. That did not deter him as he said, “it’s just like riding a bike—just get back up and start!” And that is what I have done, and I have not stopped painting since.

My primarily medium is watercolor but dabble in other mediums. I am particularly fond of capturing the beauty of McCoy pottery in still life, as well as painting flowers from my garden, and rustic barns that liven up the countryside. I recently challenged myself and began sketching and painting various historical buildings in the Zanesville/Putnam Historical area. The character of these historical buildings makes a rich patina for a watercolor palette. I often find myself asking who lived there, what did they do for a living---I try to put myself back in time and put the watercolors to work moving and flowing to capture the image and feel of those magnificent historical buildings.

Matt Fox

“My name is Matt Fox and have been embedded in the arts for many years having taken art courses throughout high school and art history courses at the university level. I began working with glass several years ago and have not stopped. I began teaching myself how to cut and assemble stained glass from YouTube videos and using what supplies I could find at the local craft supply store. When not in the glass studio, I work as a registered nurse, and I am a faculty member and nursing program director at Ohio University Eastern. I enjoy learning and creating new pieces when in the glass studio. I continue to work with small pieces and do take commission requests. I also pride myself on keeping my artwork affordable so everyone can enjoy my colorful glass creations. Please stop by Matt’s Art Glass at 8 Main St. Zanesville, OH 5pm-8pm on the First Friday of each month.”

In February, Yan Sun Art Museum & Gallery is excited to present the “Pleasure with Our Animal Friends” exhibition. In this exhibition, you will see how oil and acrylic paintings feature the special bond between humans and animals, and how they take you into the artist’s journey exploring everyday life and the natural environment. The artists present our animal friends in their artworks based on close observation of the natural world using various techniques and styles. Opening Reception: Friday, February 3, 2023, 5:00pm-8:00pm, free and open to the public.

From the President's Palette

“Vol-un-teer...Noun-a person who freely offers to take part in an enterprise or undertake a task. Verb-freely offer to do something. “He volunteered for the job.” As the new 2023-2024 Art COZ President, here’s to a bright New Year and a fond farewell to the old; here’s to the things that are yet to come, and to the memories that we hold. My family and I are no strangers to the term VOLUNTEER! Our father was a much-loved Scout Executive for the Muskingum Valley Boy Scouts of America for 14 years, and I followed in his footsteps at The Marion, Ohio, BSA and then The Black Swamp Council BSA until I moved to Zanesville in 1995 and started a 26-year sales and marketing career at the WHIZ Media Group, now Marquee Broadcasting. As an executive for the BSA, your job is to train and motivate vol-un-teers to dedicate hundreds of hours to your cause/COZ for free! And trained well we were. No one trains better than the Boy Scouts of America’s NEI, National Executive Institute, in West Lake Texas. I was taught to serve with a happy heart, and over the years have served the United Way, The Carr Center, The Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra, The March of Dimes, ZAAP, and more. Mohammed Ali said, “Service to others is the rent you pay for your room here on Earth.” That is so true. So, as I embark on my next journey as your President of Art COZ, I will do it with a joyful heart in vol-un-teer service to community and the joy of art, and together we will build our artist community! Winston Churchill said, “Beginning with audacity is a very great part of the art of painting.” So let us begin with an Au-da-cious spirit, the willingness to take surprisingly bold risks! Here’s to being BOLD in 2023!

Art Within Us - The Linda Regula Legacy Scholarship
