

Schulte, George

George Anthony Schulte, 80, lifelong resident of Port Hope, died on Wednesday, Feb. 12, 2003, in St. Petersburg General Hospital in Florida. He was born on Aug. 31, 1922, in Harbor Beach to the late Edward J. and Catherine T. (Kramer) Schulte. George was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Dwight Township. He served in the United States Navy for two years. He sailed the Great Lakes for 39 years with the Merchant Marines. George was inducted to the Great Lakes Lore Maritime Museum. He was a charter member of Amvets Post 115 in Port Hope. He was a member of the Port Hope Grindstone Sportsman's Club and the Knights of Columbus in Bad Axe. He loved to play cards. He is survived by one brother, Francis R. Schulte and his wife, Nona, of Port Hope; four sisters, Agnes L. Freeman of Madeira Beach, Fla., Mildred J. Newell of Nashville, Tenn., Mary E. Gallagher and her husband, John, of Nashville, Tenn., Theresa A. Kautz and her husband, Keith, of Ferndale; many nieces and nephews. George was preceded in death by three brothers, Joseph, Melvin and Anthony Schulte; one sister, Catherine Carabin. Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11 a.m. on Monday, Feb. 17, 2003, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Dwight Township. Visitation is from 1 to 9 p.m. today at MacAlpine Funeral Home Gage Chapel in Kinde. There will be an Amvets White Clover service at 6 p.m. There will be a scripture service at 7 p.m., and the Knights of Columbus will present a rosary at 8 p.m. Memorials may be offered to the Amvets.