

Eager to volunteer at a non-profit?

Are you great at talking to people over the phone?

Join us as a Research Volunteer!

Purpose: Help Con Mi MADRE fulfill its mission of getting Latinas to college by assisting with data collection efforts. Research Volunteers will contact students in the evenings in September and October, build rapport and complete surveys with them over the phone.

Location: Con Mi MADRE's office at the School of Social Work at the University of Texas at Austin

Responsibilities:

- Keeping a log of calls and surveys completed
- Data entry
- Maintaining the strictest confidentiality

Time Commitment: 2 hours per evening, 2 or 3 times a week from September 6th to October 28th

Qualifications:

- Basic knowledge of computer and data entry
- Dependability
- Bilingual (English and Spanish)

Training and Support: Volunteer orientation in mid-August, supervisor available to help over e-mail

Benefits:

- Work and research experience (looks fantastic on a resume)
- Contributing to a growing research field!

If you are interested, please contact our Research Coordinator, Cecilia Morales at ceci@conmimadre.org