Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

“You disregard God’s commandment, but cling to human tradition.”

Jesus was clearly not reluctant to confront the hypocrisy of the leaders of the Jewish people of his day. By his actions and harsh words, Jesus challenged the many rules and restrictions imposed on the people that had nothing to do with loving God with our whole heart, mind, soul and strength; and loving our neighbor as ourselves. The Jewish leaders used those rules and restrictions to maintain control over the vast majority of the people who were not ignorant, but were uneducated. They were taught to fear God and did not question the purely human dictates of their leaders. Jesus taught people about the Love of God and that a loving God would not demand of us things that are unreasonable and irrational. Jesus and his disciples ignored the minute dietary and sanitary mandates. He was not opposed to cleanliness, but he boldly proclaimed that it was not what we put in our mouth that offends and hurts God, it is what comes out of our mouth as a result of what we think and feel. What comes out of our mouth?
