SYLLABUS – THEATER

The following aspects of theatre will be covered:

- Character Studies: teaching students how to break down characters and scenes to find motivation and quirks.
- Dramatic Acting: work to develop depth of emotion and the ability to cohesively build the story.
- Comedic/Improv Acting: how to use established tropes and stereotypes to entertain and audience.
- Writing: help students bring their ideas to the stage through comedic sketches or dramatic acting.
- Stage: make-up, costumes, stage terms/language use, and theatre etiquette.

Each subject will break down various aspects of stage acting and the importance of each, including diction, movement, body awareness, blocking, and more.
