

Cornerstone Theatre Arts to Stage Comedy/Drama “A View of the Harbor”

“Nick is a child of privilege who grew up with every possible advantage. But along the way he came to believe that he could never measure up to the demands of his father, Daniel, a powerful and mercurial man who has run the family businesses with ruthless cunning.” (Dramatic Publishing)

Written by Award-Winner Richard Dresser and Directed by CTA’s Artistic Director Ken Tschan, this comedy/drama explores the many and varied facets of family dynamics, human relationships, and the quirks of power. The cast features Joe Barra, Ben Hudson, Sara Johnson, and Rebecca Robbins. Jaqueline Dion designs lights and sound. Marianne Ciuffetelli is Assistant Director.

A View of the Harbor will be on stage at Cornerstone Theatre Arts in Goshen, NY Nov. 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 16, 17 and 18. Friday and Saturdays at 7PM Sundays at 2PM. Reservations Required. Please call (845) 294-4188. $12 per seat payable at the door. The Goshen Music Hall, 223 Main Street, Goshen NY (2nd Floor Walk-Up.) Play runs 90 minutes without intermission.