There is a continuous theme that seems to be running through today's readings. This theme can be summarized simply as don't look back once you have set off down the road to living a holy life. In other words, we might say stop hankering and longing to return to your old sinful ways. If you want to be a true disciple, give up your sins for good, and don't recall them fondly, because that is going to lead you straight back to them. As an example, If a man's major sin is womanizing, and if he finally does decide to give it up and lead a noble life, but if he still thinks he can reminisce about the good old days and about how much fun he had while doing his wicked deeds, he'll never make any progress on his journey toward holiness. What he needs to do is reject even the idea of indulging in the pleasure of his memories. This means total commitment to his new path. That's what the Lord wants. He'll work with us and lead us along at our own pace for much of the time, but there will come a point when he'll say, "Choose to follow me and choose never to look back," and we'll be expected to give him a definitive answer.

Congratulations to the following who receive the Sacrament of Confirmation today: Julia Bernstein, Liberty Johnson, Abby Kiesow, Daphney Koralewski, and Peyton Verbout!

Jesus with Philip and other Apostles

Prayer

O God, who in the abasement of your Son have raised up a fallen world, fill your faithful with holy joy, for on those you have rescued from slavery to sin you bestow eternal gladness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

We are the Hands of Christ

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbor, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home?

Many of us probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded.

A simple “hello” and a smile goes a long way.

Prayer Blankets

You Matter. We care. You are not alone.

There are prayer blankets in the back of the church for those whom are sick, suffering or dying. Please sign the book to whom it is given to so we know who the prayers are for. Thank you!!

OTHER WAYS TO SUPPORT YOUR PARISH

- Have Masses offered for friends or relatives, deceased or still living. Just drop a note in the collection basket, along with your donation; the usual amount is $5.00/Mass. If this would be a financial hardship, please let me know, and I will be happy to offer one without a stipend.
- Offer Memorials in honor of your deceased loved ones to your parish's building and maintenance fund, or to your parish cemetery.
- Leave a legacy gift to the parish in your will, or name the parish as the beneficiary of your retirement policy or life insurance plan.

When You (or someone you love) Visits the Hospital

None of us looks forward to time spent in a hospital bed. Altru Health System seeks to both help with what is wrong physically and also to support patients in other ways. That includes spiritual support.

Some of you may remember the days when the local hospital would call churches to inform pastors when a parishioner had become a patient. That went away years ago. These days a patient's privacy is protected carefully and hospitals are inspected in terms of protecting patient information and keeping it private.

So if you become a patient at Altru your information is kept private. You will have full control of who comes to see you.

“Will my pastor know I'm in so he/she can come to see me?” you might ask. There's two ways that can happen and you, the patient, control both.

One way is for you to tell your pastor, or to have your family contact the church. Your pastor wants to know. The second is to ask an Altru Chaplain to contact your pastor. Altru's Chaplains want to help and believe in the ministry and support your pastor can provide. If you ask, only if you ask, a chaplain will make that contact.

The chaplains at the hospital want to serve you and to serve the church. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Pastoral Services.
