

The Sacredness of Creation: A Conversation in Four Parts

What: “Sacredness of Creation: Nature as Refuge” dialogue session

When: Tuesday, July 21, 2020 @ 6:30 – 8:00 pm

Where: Online Ministry

The Inland West MC is sponsoring evening dialogue sessions, which are open to everyone! Come join us in a dialogue about the Sacredness of Creation on Tuesday. Share your story of how nature provided a connection or a refuge for you during these past few months of isolation and sheltering in place.

“Nature as Refuge” will also be offered in two public dialogue sessions. If you can’t attend on July 21, you can join in one of the following alternate dialogues:

July 17, 4:00—5:30 pm.

Or July 26, 2:00—3:30 pm.

This is the first of many conversations facilitated by a North American team of Community of Christ members, and sponsored by the GPNWMC. Conversations in our Phase One series will include “Holy Attention to Awaken our Hearts,” “Exploring the Sacredness of Creation,” and “Hope for a New Creation.”

Phase Two of our dialogue sessions will explore the unraveling of God’s sacred creation, the re-weaving of the web of life, climate change and the Community of Christ, and lifestyle practices that foster hope. Dates for these subsequent conversations will be publicized by your mission center. Watch for them!
