Helping the Environment and to Dispose of Electronics

In today's era of ever changing technology, it's common to have old tv's, computers and electronics laying around your house collecting dust. The challenge is that local trash collections do not include such electronics because of the environmental impact on landfills. The correct way to dispose of these electronics is through responsible recycling. To help assist homeowners in this effort, I will host a Free Electronics Recycling Event on Saturday, July 29 from 9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. in the Pink Parking lots at DestinyUSA.

At no cost, residents can drop off unwanted electronics at this event. The items are refurbished, sold as parts or completely recycled by Sunnking, a Rochester based recycling company. The company states that most electronics are completely recyclable. Common materials that are recovered through the process for reuse include glass, copper, aluminum, tin, steel, iron, plastic, silver, platinum, and gold. In addition to these reusable materials, there are also a handful of harmful and highly toxic substances such as lead, mercury, beryllium, lithium, cadmium, BRFs (Brominated Flame Retardants), PCBs (Polychlorinated Biphenyls), and PVC (Polyvinyl Chloride) that are properly disposed of by Sunnking.

In an effort to make the drop off process easier, there is no need to even get out of your car. Volunteers from local non-profit organizations lift the electronics out of your vehicle and place it into the designated piles. These non-profits are: the Butternut Community Police Center and Interfaith Works. Volunteers from both organizations receive a portion of the event's proceeds from Sunnking.

Free Electronics Recycling Events are a wonderful solution for the community. It allows residents to get rid of their old electronics and it helps prevent additional damage to the environment through improper disposal. It also helps local non-profits by allowing them to earn additional funds for their work.

Local Libraries Receive Grants

Assemblyman Magnarelli is pleased to announce that five libraries in the 129th Assembly District will receive NYS grants through the NYS Education Department/NYS Library Construction Awards.

Earlier this month, the NYS Education Department's Libraries Division announced that the following libraries will receive grant funding: Betts Branch, White Branch, Petit Branch, Hazard Branch and Paine Branch. Grants awarded range from $18,563 to $26,063.

"I firmly believe that public libraries are essential neighborhood assets, offering everything from books and educational materials, to technology and job search tools to community programs," Assemblyman Magnarelli said. This year's NYS Adopted Budget restored aid to public libraries by $9 million--for a total of $95.6 million, to ensure they can continue to provide services and resources to residents. In addition, the budget provides an increase of $10 million in capital funding for a total of $24 million.

During session, Assemblyman Magnarelli met in his Albany office with librarians and patrons of Onondaga County's Library system.

100 Years Serving Our Community

Assemblyman Magnarelli attended the 100th Year celebration of Solvay Bank and presented Bank President Paul Mello with a NYS Assembly Proclamation for 100 years of service to the community. Solvay Bank is the oldest commercial bank in Central New York.

Announcing improvements to Lakeview Amphitheater

Assemblyman Magnarelli joined Onondaga County Executive Joanie Mahoney and NYS Department of Transportation Commissioner Matt Driscoll at the recent announcement of new improvements to the Lakeview Amphitheater. Assemblyman Magnarelli provided $500,000 in capital grant funding for trail and concession stand improvements.

Field Trip to the State Capitol

Fourth grade students from Mrs. Pamela Meszko's class at Salem Hyde visited the State Capitol in Albany at the end of the school year to see government in action. The members of Assembly were debating legislation in the last week of session during the visit from the local students.
