

New York City Tour: The all-day New York City tour will take you from high (850') above Midtown, through Upper and Lower Manhattan. It includes the following:

“Top of The Rock”:

Top of the Rock is a 55,000 square-foot, six-level complex that, for the first time in 20 years, offers visitors an unparalleled experience from which to enjoy vast, 360-degree views of New York City. The observation deck is atop the Art Deco skyscraper, 30 Rock. Views include some of the city's most prominent landmarks: The new "Freedom Tower" (One World Trade Center), the Empire State Building, the Chrysler Building, the Brooklyn Bridge, and from Central Park to the Hudson and East Rivers. There is a multi-media exhibit on the history of Rockefeller Center featuring contemporary plasma screens alongside an original basswood model of 30 Rockefeller Plaza. Sky shuttle elevators have projections on the glass ceiling showing images from 1930s through present day, symbolizing the passage of time, as they transport visitors to the deck. Outdoor observation decks in addition to indoor viewing areas with floor to ceiling windows. The observation deck was first opened to the public in 1933.
