January 2017 News

Greetings family, friends, and missionaries,

Hope all is well with you and family! We have been blessed with snow, Sun, and rain it has been a mild winter so far...also we are thankful to the Lord for good health.

In Father God's service, there are opportunities to share in your community; which requires obedience, faithfulness, and compassion. Wherever we are, that is the mission field. We begin our day asking Father to arranged our schedule that we may share our Jesus story. So, we are to be ready when someone interrupts our routine...when that happens God is about to do something. Continue to stay flexible and watch where God is at work.

Here are some ways God has worked:

An Army Veteran passed through Cumberland from the Mid West and he stopped in FC to get directions...he received a hot meal, clothes, heard the Good News, and received gas allotment to get him to Ohio.

A woman came to FC and said, her son needed clothes to attend a family funeral.

A man needed a ride to get kerosene to heat his house and we found out he had no food...so we got a big box of food. He was very thankful.

A local women needed to do community service for government assistance so she worked several days at FCM.

Robin and I joined others to serve with Loaves & Fishes, to give out food boxes and talk with the folks.

SC and TN missonaries brought donations on day trips to meet needs of our local friends.

He used us to serve and fellowship with 335 friends at Freedom Center.

The community had a nice warm meal at Club 180 in Cumberland. Turkey, mashed potatoes, green beans, dressing, bread and Watergate salad. It was delicious.

Also, folks (a pastor) enjoyed fellowship with Julie Pitts, George & Robin Lewis, Ashley Page and several others.

Another a great night at Friday Night Fellowship! George and Robin Lewis cooked and we had a great turnout serving 42 folks. Had a great time singing some old hymns!
